Mr. Gartland made a motion to add a third challenge received at 2:14 p.m. to the agenda:

Ms. Brooks SECONDED. APPROVED 4-0.

Challenges:

- A challenge from Jason Shepherd to the qualifications of 16,024 voters and their eligibility to vote in the January 5, 2021 General Election Runoff pursuant to the Official Code of Georgia Annotated §21-2-230 (a).

- A challenge from Pamela Reardon to the qualifications of 3,618 voters and their eligibility to vote in the January 5, 2021 General Election Runoff pursuant to the Official Code of Georgia Annotated §21-2-230 (a).

- A challenge from Pamela Reardon to the qualifications of 28,760 voters and their eligibility to vote in the January 5, 2021 General Election Runoff pursuant to the Official Code of Georgia Annotated §21-2-230 (a).

Attorney Litchfield detailed the circumstances that would constitute probable cause and explained the National Change of Address (NCOA) lists submitted by Mr. Shepherd and Ms. Reardon are not sufficient evidence as there was no way to verify if the names listed are the same individuals in the Cobb County Voter Registration Database.
Attorney Litchfield asked Attorney White whether he felt the evidence submitted was adequate to approve the challenges submitted. Attorney White agreed with Mr. Litchfield and went on to reference a case of similar circumstances heard in Fulton County that was dismissed due to lack of evidence.

Ms. Brooks spoke and explained that she read the Official Code of Georgia, her interpretation was the same as Attorneys Litchfield and White and her opinion is that there is not enough sufficient evidence to move forward.

Director Eveler commented that she had conducted research of over 200 of names submitted on Ms. Reardon’s first challenge list and found that many of the individuals named had already completed a change to their registration to their new county or had relocated to a third residence within Cobb County.

Ms. Brooks made a motion that there was NOT probable cause and all three CHALLENGES would be DENIED. Mr. Gartland SECONDED. APPROVED 4-0.

Mr. Aiken moved to adjourn the meeting at 3:29 p.m.
Mr. Wilson SECONDED. APPROVED 4-0
