14 day (2 week) Rolling COVID-19 Case Average per 100K population
Values above yellow line are considered high spread (value >100)

- Georgia 14-day per 100K
- Cobb 14-day per 100K

[Graph showing COVID-19 case average over a 14-day period, with data points highlighting significant spikes.]

- Peak of 980 cases on [date]
- Peak of 642 cases on [date]
- Peak of 456 cases on [date]
- Peak of 264 cases on [date]
- Peak of 174 cases on [date]
- Peak of 136 cases on [date]