

About the Scavenger Hunt

Test your knowledge of Acworth "Then and Now!" Visit the four historic sites and based on our photo clues, correctly answer the question for each site. Add your name and telephone number to the form and bring it to the North Cobb Regional Library by November 30.

This scavenger hunt will be available October-November, 2021. A companion hunt also is available for Kennesaw.

Name: _____

Telephone: (____) ____ - ____

North Cobb Regional Library

3535 Old 41 Highway
Kennesaw, GA 30144

Phone: (770) 801-5320
E-mail: contactus@cobbcab.org

Modern Images: Dennis Baswell

Brochure Design: Andrew Bramlett

Stop #4:

This historic building is known as the Armstrong Building, and today is home of a well-known restaurant. It sits on Main Street near an advertisement for a "Delicious and Refreshing" drink.

What year was the building built?

Image Source: Save Acworth History Foundation

Historic Acworth Scavenger Hunt

North Cobb Regional Library

Stop #1:

Across the railroad tracks from a place to mail letters is this recently restored church. The church was built in 1901, and originally had an exposed brick façade.

What year was the church organized?

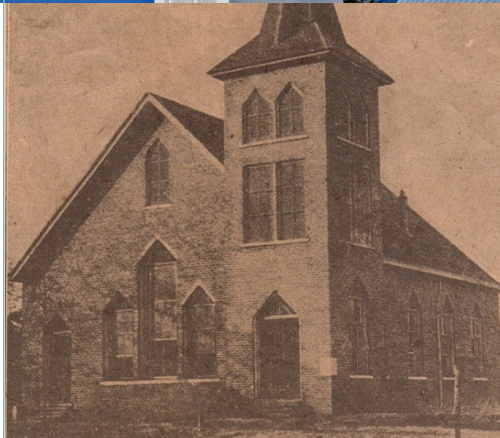

Image Source: Save Acworth History Foundation

Stop #2:

At one time the school for Acworth's African American community, this small building is now an events space. It is near a house for art and a park named for a farm, and is on a street named for a Native American tribe.

Next door is a small park with a sculpture. What does the sculpture say?

Image Source: Beverly Patton Griffin

Stop #3:

This building is a replica of a structure that originally sat at the same location. It is near a bridge, a train car, and a street with the same name as a fruit.

What group helped the City of Acworth recreate the building?

Image Source: Save Acworth History Foundation