

Cobb County Water System needs your help to fulfill our Holiday Wish List! Remember to practice good water conservation habits by disposing of Fats, Oils, and Grease in the trashcan instead of down your sink, installing high efficiency water fixtures, repairing dripping faucets and leaking toilets, and only flushing toilet paper down the toilet. For more water conservation habits both inside and outside the home, or to learn about our upcoming community service projects, visit our website cobbstreams.org.

