We help you take your training online

Training & Course Digitisation

Why Go Digital?

Converting your training material into a digital format has various benefits beyond the obvious cost-effectiveness and time-saving.

It is accessible anywhere, at any time allowing employees and clients to engage at their convenience.

It is customisable and can be tailored to your specific needs as well as being easy to update and modify.

Digital training material is rich in multimedia making the learning experience more engaging.

What We Do

Send us your training material and we will transform it into an engaging, customised digital format.

We create videos, notes, assessments and workbooks according to your specifications.

We do product training, user guides, induction training, soft skills, policies and procedures and much more.

What About Hosting?

No need to invest in your own Learning Management System, you can host your training on our system and enjoy the benefits of an international platform.

Lessons In Leadership

Course • 14 Lessons

Course facilitated by Tani Moodley.

The aspirant female leader.

Maintaining balance between being a leader, wife, mother and care giver is a challenge faced by women throughout the world. In this course I will be sharing my experiences as well as tools and techniques necessary for successfully navigating these seemingly conflicting priorities.

Sexual Harassment

Course • 38 Lessons

This course has been developed by ClearlawSA and defines sexual harassment in all of its forms, gives examples of how and when it might happen and sets out the legal position in South Africa in relation to its treatment.

This course is a comprehensive guide for businesses concerned about the phenomenon and a convenient way to educate staff.

BODY TYPES AND SHAPES

Gain confidence and feel fabulous

Knowing your body type will help you to optimise your health and wellbeing. Knowing how to dress for your body shape will help you feel great.

CRITICAL AND DIVERSE THINKING

This Masterclass will teach you how to improve your critical thinking skills as well as assist you to interpret the way you think and how to guide your thinking to make better decisions.

EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE

The key to personal and professional success
We start off with assessing your current EQ. And then work through the detail of what both emotional intelligence and self awareness is and how you can improve both.

CREATING AN AUTHENTIC PERSONAL BRAND

YOU are a brand and either you are in control of where it is taking you, or you are just letting it happen. This course will help you to navigate brand you in the direction you want it to go.
