

INTIMACY ASIDE WARNING

Please Note:

Thoughts about what you want for your intimate relationships should consciously be set aside for your study and implementation time in this program.

Dynamics of this type will stand the test of time, however we live our lives every day.

They are a complementary part of being the individual self that we are.

But ensuring that we meet and acknowledge our partnership needs is an aside from the work that we are doing here.

I am not a relationship counselor and never will be.

My strong recommendation is that you clearly separate analysing or working on that part of your life, views and needs from this particular period of self-identity work.

We do not need to bring dating and intimate relationship dynamics into it while we explore gender and biological sex, and relating any of this work to it may cloud the self-identity discoveries and pathways that we are focusing on.

This is about you standing in your most powerful authenticity as an individual and doing work that will serve you in all areas of life going forward but, for now, let's keep it within the realms of identity-building and make it just for you, without thoughts about how you relate to others in romantic or intimate ways.
