I am doing CELPIP and the reasons I am doing it are my motivations. I look at my wants, and I know I can turn them into my haves. I look at my Canada, and I know I can achieve it. I look at my promises and I get excited because when I get CELPIP my future is so much brighter. I want the freedom that Canada has to offer, I want the life that Canada has to offer, I will work for it.
