Media & Likeness Release

The Content Cafe Garage · [Business Legal Name] · [Business Address]

Draft template. Have a licensed attorney in your state review before use.

1. Why this exists

The Content Cafe Garage ("CCG") is a place where content gets made, and cameras, microphones, and live streams are part of daily life here. This release covers photos, video, and audio that CCG captures of you, and what CCG may do with them. It is separate from any content you create yourself using CCG's space or equipment, which stays yours (see the Equipment & Space Use Agreement).

2. Grant of permission

I give CCG, and those it authorizes, permission to photograph, film, record, and live stream me, and to capture my voice, name, image, and likeness ("Media") while I am on the Premises or taking part in a CCG event, production, or session.

I agree CCG may use, edit, reproduce, publish, and display that Media, without payment to me, for:

- CCG's website and social media accounts
- Event promotion, newsletters, and advertising for CCG
- Portfolio and sample work showing CCG's services
- Live streams and recordings of CCG events
- Press, partner, and community promotion

This permission applies worldwide, in any current or future media format, and does not expire unless I revoke it under section 6.

3. Choose your level of permission

Initial one box:

Initials	Option
	Full release. CCG may use Media of me as described in section 2, including my name and image.
	Image only, no name. CCG may use my image and voice but may not identify me by name.
	Private sessions only. CCG may not publish Media of me, except for incidental appearance in the background of live events or streams.

If no box is initialed, the "Image only, no name" option applies.

4. Live events and incidental capture

CCG hosts events, live streams, and sessions where many people are present. By entering an area marked as being recorded or streamed, I understand I may appear in the background of Media, even if I have chosen a more limited option above. CCG will make reasonable efforts to respect my choice, including pausing or editing where practical.

5. Ownership

CCG owns the Media it captures, including all copyright. I will not receive payment or royalties, and I do not have the right to review or approve Media before it is published. I may not claim that CCG's use of Media is an invasion of privacy, a violation of any right of publicity, or defamation, provided CCG uses it as described here.

6. Withdrawing permission

I may withdraw this release for future use at any time by written notice to CCG at [email]. CCG will stop new uses within a reasonable time and will make reasonable efforts to remove Media from its own websites and social accounts. CCG cannot recall or delete material already published, printed, shared, or reposted by others, and past uses remain valid.

7. No compensation, no obligation

CCG is not required to use any Media. This release is not an employment, talent, or partnership agreement.

8. Minors

If the person above is under 18, a parent or legal guardian must also sign. By signing, that parent or guardian grants this permission on behalf of the minor and confirms they have legal authority to do so.

9. Governing law and severability

This release is governed by the laws of [State]. If any part is unenforceable, the rest remains in effect.

10. Signatures
