Course Description:

This course introduces students to the study of international politics. The actions of nations and other political actors is increasingly complex and interdependent. Knowledge of world affairs is a central element of the study of politics in the modern era. In this course, students will acquire the basic analytic tools necessary to understand and explain a variety of international phenomena including war, terrorism, globalization, environmental cooperation, and human rights practices.

Course Requirements:

- Attendance (10%): You are required to attend class. Attendance is based on quizzes.
- Participation (10%): Read assigned portions of the textbook on time, then come to class prepared to discuss what you have learned. Ideas are best grasped when used in context.
- Quizzes (40%): Quizzes are designed to ensure that you keep up with the reading, and to assess your knowledge of key concepts. Each quiz will consist of a brief set of short, factual questions (True/false, multiple choice, fill in the blank) based on the text.
- Final Exam (40% of course grade): Essay exam, choice of questions. Bring exam book.

Student Standards:

- Plagiarism I encourage you to study and learn together. However, all assignments must be the sole product of the person submitting the work. Don't cheat and don't plagiarize. If you have any questions about what constitutes a violation of academic integrity, see me.
- Disabilities/life issues It is your responsibility to apprise me of factors that may interfere with your performance in class well in advance of scheduled assignments. Appropriate measures for disabilities, acts of God, etc. will be taken in accordance with UC policies.
- Grading/appeals All attempts to discuss grading decisions must be made in writing.

Readings:

The textbook for this course is available from the UCSD bookstore and elsewhere. Please make sure to obtain the 2nd edition. Unfortunately, this is new and prices are high even for used copies.

- Jeffrey A Frieden, David A Lake and Kenneth A Schultz. 2013. World Politics: Interests, Interactions, Institutions, 2nd Ed. New York: W.W. Norton & Co. (hereafter "FLS")
- An Ebook version of the text can be purchased at:
