COURSE SYLLABUS

The course syllabus provides critical information about this course. Download and read through this document to get a thorough understanding of course organization, expectations, policies, and grade information. You will need to refer to this document throughout the semester so make sure you are familiar with it.

COURSE SCHEDULE

Below the syllabus is the course schedule. This provides important information about laboratory activities, quizzes, and lab report due dates. Content is color-coded to more easily relate lecture and lab activities to quiz and report content.

COURSE SUMMARY

Below the syllabus and schedule is the Course Summary section. This provides information and due dates for all assignments in this course. Check this section frequently to make sure you have completed all required assignments and are aware of upcoming due dates and events.

INSTRUCTOR COMMUNICATION POLICY

There are several means to contact me throughout the course of the semester. These include:

CONVERSATIONS TOOL (INBOX)

This is the preferred way to contact me, and allows you to interact with your classmates as well. For a video tutorial on how to use the Conversations Tool, click this link.

COURSE Q&A

Have a general question about the course or an assignment/quiz/policy/etc, especially one that would be of interest to the rest of the class? Post it here on the Discussion Board Q&A Thread.

EMAIL: swmiller@ucsd.edu (<mailto:swmiller@ucsd.edu>)

If you have a more personal question you can also reach me by email (the Conversations Tool also is directed to my email). With most electronic communication means I will respond as soon as I can, typically within one business day. If I do not respond within one business day, please try to contact me again.

OPEN OFFICE TIME

Additionally, if you are on campus and have a question, would like to review concepts, or have other matters that you would like to have addressed in person, please see me. My Open Office Time is Monday from 12:30 pm - 1:30 pm in Bonner Hall 4121.
