CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND APPEARANCE OF FAIRNESS

All members of Town Commissions or Town Council must act in accordance with the Appearance of Fairness Doctrine at Chapter 42.36 of the Revised Code of Washington. If any Commissioner/Councilperson has a personal interest in any matter before the Planning Commission or Town Council that would prejudice their actions, they must publicly disclose the conflict of interest and recuse himself or herself from participating in the proceedings and voting on the matter.

- a) To preserve the integrity of the Commission and Council, if a Commissioner or Councilperson reasonably believes that he/she has a conflict of interest regarding a matter before the Planning Commission or Town Council, the Commissioner/Councilperson should recuse himself/herself from discussion or vote on the matter.
- b) A Commissioner or Councilperson may seek advice from the City Attorney in making this determination

- c) If the Commissioners or Town Council members do not believe enough information is available to make a motion for approval/disapproval, the matter shall be tabled and additional written comments from the recused may be requested.
