The US government has updated its COVID-19 vaccination guidance that some people may receive a second booster dose using an mRNA COVID-10 vaccine at least four months after the first booster dose.

- People age 50 years and older.
- People age 12 years and older who are moderately or severely immunocompromised.
- People age 18 years and older who received Janssen as both primary and booster dose.

Source: CDC