

Hey Family!

2023 is here, and our fpKIDS Team is SO excited. We believe that 2023 will be the best year yet for your family and at Faith Promise!

At fpKIDS, we love God, and we pray continually to God. We have written a guided prayer for you to pray over your child at the beginning of each month this year!

See the pages below for these guided prayers!

Family, we love you, and we are praying for your family right alongside you!
