YOUR TRUSTED LENDER

After serving 20 years in the U.S. Army and Marine Corps, I've carried my commitment to service into the mortgage industry as a licensed Loan Officer with EMC. My mission is to make the home financing process clear and approachable, whether clients are purchasing their first home, refinancing, or pursuing investment opportunities. I focus on listening, simplifying complex details, and ensuring every client feels supported and confident throughout their journey.

My military career taught me to lead under pressure, adapt quickly, and operate with integrity—skills I now bring to mortgage lending. With that foundation, I take pride in building lasting relationships, earning trust, and helping families achieve their dream of homeownership.
