

YOUR return TO GETTYSBURG

GETTYSBURG®
LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

POWERED BY FCCS

THE UNFINISHED WORK: PURSUIT, RETREAT & RESILIENCE

What could you gain from walking this battlefield once more? A level of leadership that can help you guide yourself and others through the most difficult times ... and well beyond.

This advanced Leadership Experience at Gettysburg has been created exclusively for those who found their first visit valuable and want more. More insight into facing adversity and still moving forward. Greater confidence in their ability to read the moment and recognize their most promising strategy. Leverage the lessons you've already learned as you integrate new knowledge of Meade's Pursuit, Lee's Retreat to Virginia, Lincoln's Visit to Gettysburg and the course of action they set. Position your leadership style to guide both people and processes during periods of intense change and adversity. It's the experience you need for these changing times.

This experience is your opportunity to:

- ★ Return to the battlefield with other Gettysburg Leadership Experience veterans for advanced exploration, connection and reflection
- ★ Reflect on the importance of leadership in dealing with adversity and failure
- ★ Revisit Transactional and Transformational models of leadership in times of change of circumstance
- ★ Network with others to leverage past/present/future connections

RETURN. transform.

“I now see setbacks in a much different way.

They are no less harsh, but having a course of action does instill hope.”

MAPPING YOUR NEXT EXPERIENCE

Most visitors to programs conclude their experience at Gettysburg with the defeat of Pickett's Charge on July 3, 1863. The more complete story continues through the following day, July 4, 1863—literally “four score and seven years” after the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Both the Army of Northern Virginia and the Army of the Potomac were still intact with many of the same players and leaders at the helm. Both armies, however, were facing new realities of victory and defeat.

In the space of an afternoon, the Army of Northern Virginia believed they could win the war only to be dealt a catastrophic loss. The Army of the Potomac, facing the possibility of defeat on the battleground, is now ultimately in position to end the war. The Gettysburg Campaign would continue for 10 additional days.

The two-day program is highly interactive and includes:

DAY 1 — MEADE'S PURSUIT/LEE'S RETREAT

- ★ The Walk of Reversal: Facing the Reality of Failure
- ★ Leadership in Adversity: Contemporary Clausewitz
- ★ Retracing the Retreat: Finding Strength in Survival
- ★ Reflection: Restoring Balance

DAY 2 — LINCOLN AND LEVEL 5

- ★ The Paradoxes and Dilemmas of Leadership:
Was Lincoln a Level 5 Leader?
- ★ Strategic “Silver Linings”:
Assessing Strengths in the Aftermath
- ★ Higher Purpose: Identifying Leaders
- ★ Reflection: “The Unfinished Work”

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Visit gettysburgleadershipexperience.com and select Pursuit, Retreat & Resilience—Gettysburg Leadership Experience to register. For more information, contact John Regentin, Director, Gettysburg Leadership Experience.

717.752.0495 || John.Regentin@fccsconsulting.com

fccsconsulting.com | 888.ASK.FCCS

Leadership Experiences at Gettysburg are offered exclusively by the Accelerate Center of FCCS. FCCS has been providing a wide range of professional services and programs to help clients manage risks and promote their team's growth and success since 1975. Its industry-specific insight, objectivity, and expertise are unmatched. The Accelerate Center addresses the knowledge and experience acquisition components of organizational growth by uniting talent and technology in innovative, value-rich offerings.

We welcome the opportunity to work with you.