

FCC Services Partners with Aimpoint Research to Provide Employee Engagement Surveys

FCC Services has selected Aimpoint Research, a current Passkey Partner, to help power employee engagement surveys for our valued Farm Credit and cooperative clients. Aimpoint Research has decades of experience conducting research in the agricultural, food and beverage, and financial services industries that complement our strong history of driving business results through innovative engagement approaches.

“In Aimpoint, we have an industry-leading research partner that will help FCC Services unlock actionable insights and awareness for our clients,” says Nicole Sullivan, Organizational Effectiveness Consultant for FCC Services. “Together, we can enhance the productivity and profitability of the organizations we work with by increasing their employees’ engagement. I am excited to combine our organizations’ expertise and look forward to strengthening our relationship.”

To learn more about how FCC Services can help leaders make better decisions about their organization’s future, click here.