

Harnessing the Power of Technology to Mitigate Risk

There are many reasons why CT Lien Solutions, a Wolters Kluwer business, has been successful working with about 20 Farm Credit organizations. As a credible National Discount Program supplier, not only does CT Lien Solutions provide valuable tools to identify, mitigate and control your risk exposure in agriculture credit and farm equipment leasing, but also has the best technology platform and expertise to offer complete portfolio management from loan origination through loan servicing.

CT Lien Solutions combines expertise in UCC filings and searches in all jurisdictions nationwide with a nuanced understanding of the characteristics and needs of the agriculture industry. Because CT Lien Solutions knows agricultural lenders and lienholders face numerous operational and compliance risks, it provides the simplest and most trusted risk management solutions along with responsive customer service.
