

JANUARY-FEBRUARY 2021

Introducing the 2021 Virtual Speaker Series, Powered by FCCS

World class speakers. Discipline focused topics. Lessons from Gettysburg.

Leaders and teams need to strategically transform the way they function to dynamically respond to new developments. Participants in the virtual series will engage with leading presenters in the areas of leadership, trust, sales acumen, current world economic environments, and business strategy during uncertain and volatile times. Join us virtually.

Keynote Speaker Series – Join sessions with world-class Keynote speakers... from anywhere.

Discipline-Focused Series – In this series, we will narrow our focus to topics within specific disciplines. Each webinar will examine nuances of various practice areas – whether it's audit, credit, sales, marketing, leadership, risk, operations or customer experiences.

Forward Thinking: 1863-2021 - Lessons from Gettysburg – These virtual leadership sessions will feature Gettysburg Leadership Experience faculty with case studies that build on our traditional Battle of Gettysburg curricula. All of the sessions explore leadership decisions and consequences in today's complex world. We bring the leadership lessons from Gettysburg directly to you.
