

CHICAGO HISTORY MUSEUM PRESENTS:

Special Events Designed for these Historic Times

Host your special day in a petite way at the Chicago History Museum.

During these unique times of social distancing, life's big moments should still be big—even with a small group. The Chicago History Museum has been through many historic occasions and now we're ready for yours. Our new petite wedding package includes use of our classic Georgian-style venue, our plaza nestled in Lincoln Park, chairs, tables with linen, and a sparkling toast.

If you're looking for some familiar wedding traditions, including a cake cutting, personal flowers, an officiant, and live music, or even streaming services so others can take part in your special day we have that for you in our à la carte options. Have your ceremony, toasts, first dance, and cake cutting all at one of the most historic venues in Chicago! We're all in this together, so let us be a part of your special day in a petite way.

PETITE PACKAGE $2,500
