From the moment you step into the historic Trost Ballroom, you will instinctively know this will be where you are meant to celebrate your most important moments.

- Gorgeous receptions for up to 140 guests (max capacity varies depending on set)
- 2,154 square feet of unobstructed, sunlit space located on the hotel's 2nd floor

- Floor-to-Ceiling windows frame downtown El Paso for a postcard background
- Restored plaster moldings feature silver leaf accents providing a beautiful contrast
- Restored 1929 beamed-ceiling and hanging Art Deco lanterns

SOUTH TERRACE

Once the penthouse suite where Hollywood starlet Elizabeth Taylor lived during her marriage to Nicky Hilton, La Perla has been recast as an exclusive rooftop bar on the 17th floor. The name draws inspiration from Ms. Taylor's most notable jewel—La Peregrina.

Celebrate your cherished moment on La Perla's outdoor South Terrace that offers 1,600 square feet to accommodate up to 80 people for receptions.

With a handcrafted vintage-style cocktail in-hand, locals and guests find refuge from sunset to stars while overlooking two countries and three states from El Paso's highest vantage point.

CUISINE

ÁMBAR RESTAURANTE

Ámbar Restaurante features elevated Mexican cuisine. The Bar at Ámbar fascinates with a two-story, glowing amber wall feature that creates a stunning background for the most extravagant collection of tequilas, mezcals, sotols, and Mexican wines in the world.

With centuries-old ingredients of Mexican culinary heritage, the open-kitchen concept creates dining experiences rooted in shared, family-style preparations over open wood grills, coals, braziers and ovens.

Heirloom corn masa, handmade tortillas and sopas, whole animal asado preparations are expertly curated and crafted by the culinary team using both traditional and modern techniques.
