For those considering venues and others who happened across this review while romanticizing their dream wedding, let me provide an honest take. After searching and touring most venues in Central California, my wife and I stumbled across The Margaux. It has an elegant charm with an abundance of opportunities to create the vision you have for your special occasion. The beauty and aesthetics of the property speak for themselves. However, it is the owner, Lara, that is truly the gem of this venue. Her attention to detail, sensitive nature, and accommodating approach are seldom in this industry. Everyone who walks into the building is made to feel like family, and that is a sentiment that is felt from when you first tour all the way through to your wedding day. The Margaux is magic....but you will love Lara.

My husband and I just had our wedding at the Margaux and it was absolutely stunning. Lara was amazing to work with, she's very responsive and helpful with any questions we had. We've been planning our wedding since the venue was being built and we couldn't have been happier with how everything turned out! Would definitely recommend having your event here!!

I recently had the pleasure of hosting an my wedding at the Margaux, and I couldn't be more pleased with the experience. From the moment we signed our contract, Lara, the owner, was prompt, efficient, and incredibly accommodating. Every detail was taken care of, and the staff went above and beyond to ensure everything ran smoothly. A special mention has to go to the owner, whose spunky and vibrant personality truly made the whole experience memorable. She has a way of making you feel like part of the family, and her enthusiasm for making your event perfect shines through in every interaction. You can just tell your wedding means as much to her as it does to YOU. The venue itself is stunning, with beautiful spaces that feel both elegant and welcoming. Whether you're planning a small, intimate gathering or a larger celebration, this venue has it all. Highly recommend this venue for anyone looking for a place with excellent service, a wonderful atmosphere, and a truly personalized experience!

My Husband and I got married in February and had our reception at The Margaux and it was absolutely beautiful. This venue is stunning. I couldn't have imagined our reception anywhere else. Lara was great and answered any questions we had. She is very on top of responding back to emails and texts which is very helpful throughout the wedding planning process. One of the great things that The Margaux offers is day before set up which gave my team of family and friends lots of time to set up so that it was perfect. Because of the versatility of the space at the Margaux as a February bride I didn't worry about the weather because I knew all my guests would be cozy inside even if it stormed, which it didn't and the weather was perfect! I would highly recommend this gorgeous venue to anyone looking for a place for a wedding ceremony or reception. Still waiting for my professional photos to share... Here are some just captured on iPhone...

The Margaux is a locally owned family business in Madera California.
A Mama-led operation that celebrates families, friends and faith. Manifested from a hope of a young family that believed in the outcome of their abilities, hard work and perseverance.

"We are so grateful to share this dream with families across the Central Valley. Even more, we are humbled beyond measure when chosen as the canvas for your special event. The Margaux is a labor of love and a place where dreams feel possible. Our sincerest hope is to fill its walls with laughter, priceless memories and the happiest of tears."
