Greensboro, Vermont

Weddings at Turning Stone Farm

Thank you for considering Turning Stone Farm for your wedding celebration!

Turning Stone Farm features a variety of settings for you to create the look and feel for the wedding of your dreams. Our authentic 1880s historic barn is ideal for dining, music, and dancing. Our private field, yards, orchards, grape arbors, and gardens have mountain views and our wooded lanes are a magical escape. We offer exclusive access to our property for you to customize your celebration with various locations for an outdoor or indoor ceremony, cocktails, yard games, fire, photography, and more!

Located in the heart of Vermont's Northeast Kingdom and home to the finest food, beverage, and craft producers, we work closely with a variety of great local vendors who can provide you with anything you might want from flowers and photography to cakes and horse-drawn carriage rides. Whether it's caterers or accommodations, select from our list of recommended providers, or choose your own. We offer event planning and coordination services or the flexibility to do it yourself or with an event planner of your choosing.

Turning Stone Farm is a small-scale, family owned and operated integrated agricultural farm and creative studio. We strive to find harmonious ways to weave together the natural and human-made world and be a part of a sustainable ecosystem within our community. We would love to host your celebration at Turning Stone Farm and work with you to create unforgettable memories!
