FIGHTING INEQUITY IN THE DEEP SOUTH THROUGH FINANCIAL INCLUSION AND SMALL BUSINESS LENDING

Hope Enterprise Corporation is a Black-led Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI) that provides investors with the opportunity to help people in the Deep South region access non-predatory financial services and build wealth. From the Mississippi Delta, through the bayous and backwaters of Louisiana, and across the black belt of Alabama, HOPE’s service area is home to a third of the counties experiencing persistent poverty in America. Not coincidentally, the Southern U.S. is also home to 54% of the Black population in America, many of whom have struggled to build wealth due to centuries of racist policies and intergenerational poverty.

Unfortunately, lack of income is just one aspect of poverty in the Deep South. These areas are also where jobs are hardest to come by and where the conditions with regards to housing, education, health, and other vital contributors to human dignity and economic mobility lag behind the rest of the nation. The solutions to these challenges are multifaceted and complex, but all require access to affordable financial tools.

In addition to providing capital starved individuals with financial tools and resources, HOPE has supported 50 community facilities with a combined $52 million in financing. These facilities — which include community health centers, clinics, rural hospitals, schools, nonprofit organizations, fire and rescue facilities, and other critical community facilities — provide essential services, create thousands of jobs, and serve tens of thousands of people annually.

HOPE is raising a pool of private debt capital with a term of 5 years and an interest rate of 1.5%. The funding will support HOPE’s mission to strengthen communities, build assets and improve lives in economically distressed areas of the Deep South by providing access to high quality financial products and related services.

INVESTMENT THESIS

• HOPE provides banking and credit services, invests in critical community services such as schools and hospitals, and provides small business loans to entrepreneurs in the Deep South.

IMPACT THESIS

• HOPE seeks to strengthen communities, build assets, and improve lives in economically distressed areas of the Deep South by providing access to high quality financial products and related services.
• The Deep South is home to 8 of the 10 poorest states in the U.S. and one third of the country’s Persistent Poverty Counties, defined as counties where the poverty rate has exceeded 20% for three consecutive decades.
• Black Americans living in the south are still more likely to suffer intergenerational poverty, have a greater prevalence of underlying health conditions and live in communities with severely underfunded community services.
• Black-owned and led financial institutions are located in Black communities at much higher rates than White-owned financial institutions, and lend at much higher rates to Black home and small business owners seeking credit. However, the number of Black-led financial institutions in the US has declined by 50% over the past 20 years.

ILLUSTRATIVE INVESTMENTS

Sabrina Narcisse is the proud owner of “Sabrina Narcisse, LLC.” This human resources management firm brings a holistic approach to organizational culture, offering recruitment and consulting services and training courses. Ms. Narcisse started her business in 2018, and in 2022, Narcisse wanted to expand her services to offer training courses for entry- to manager level employees. Already a HOPE member, she felt confident coming to HOPE for assistance. When she could not get financing from other financial institutions, she knew HOPE would help. Narcisse received a Power of HOPE Small Business loan. Power of HOPE loans were developed to meet the working capital expenses of small businesses impacted by the pandemic by providing low-interest rate loans up to $10,000. Narcisse has since hired additional staff to help her operations become sustainable. The consulting firm is now positioned for growth.
