

NAPA Standing Panel Draft Agenda

November 4, 2022

2 to 4 pm; Zoom link

Times may change depending on when the NAPA plenary closing session concludes.

- 2:00 – 2:30 NAPA plenary closing session
- 2:30 – 2:50 Center for Intergovernmental Partnerships, including Federalism.us. Prior year accomplishments/next year ideas in development (Nancy Augustine)
- 2:50 – 3:15 SP last year accomplishments, lessons learned, cross-project lessons/themes, thoughts for future action
- Year in Review/Annual report (Mark Pisano)
What SP did and lessons learned to improve the intergovernmental system
- Making data more effective for dealing with pandemics & health issues (John Kirlin)
- Lessons/themes from 3 events/possible future activity (Shelley Metzenbaum)
- (1) local leader insights on how federal government helped/hurt in past and how it could help in the future
- (2) data dilemma and tapping technology advances to manage for better outcomes
- (3) local government best practice benchmarking
- (See Attachment 3 for thoughts about themes emerging across these 3 events.)*
- 3:15 – 3:45 Other projects under exploratory development
- Homelessness (Steve Redburn)
- Pooled purchasing (Steve Hamill with CIP)
- A new model for climate adaptation/federal role in that (Rich Callahan)
- Harvesting more insights from oversight (with CIP)
- Possible projects to develop
- Intergovernmental performance management
- “Help ya/not gotcha” – Lessons from past (e.g., NOAA, FEMA, Recovery Act, Treasury local support office, A-95, traffic safety) re what worked well, what did not, what in future
- Other projects Fellows want to develop? Justice, infrastructure, environment, meaningful work?
- 3:45 – 4:00 Open discussion. Possible topics to discuss include:
- How to get recommendations, better practice examples adopted; reduce use of less good practices
  - Relationship between SP and CIP
  - SP’s proposed strategic plan (See Attachment 2)
  - Roles NAPA, CIP, Fellows, and SP might play to improve intergovernmental arrangements and, ultimately, outcomes (e.g., dedicated funding, white papers/ reports, grant-supported projects, searching for and encouraging increased use of better intergovernmental practices, local proof-of-concept projects)

Attachments: (1) NAPA Annual Report SP submission; (2) proposed SP strategic plan; (3) possible focus areas for improving intergovernmental arrangements to improve outcomes