THEME FOR OCTOBER: POWER

Oct. 6, Our Personal Power,

Rev. Don Kerr

Oct. 13, Power to Heal,

Rev. Julie Applegate

Oct. 20, Power Begins Within,

Cheryl Guess RSP

Oct. 27, Power to Create a World for Everyone,

Rev. Maur Horton

I would rather see a student of this Science prove its Principle than to have them repeat all the words of wisdom that have ever been uttered.

The Power We Share

Joy, joy, joy! We have access to the greatest power there is. That power is the one Mind. And we share in it whether consciously or unconsciously.

Ernest Holmes describes the One Mind in the first chapter of the Science of Mind as the “invisible Essence, that ultimate Stuff and Intelligence from which everything comes, the Power back of creation—the Thing Itself.”

Using that power, we have recently demonstrated major improvements to our parking lot. Funds came mostly from people not in our congregation. Over the years we have manifested a new roof, reconfigured our electrical system and so much more from funds generated within our congregation.

That power is never ending. Likewise, our continuing use of it will bring even more good into our community's life.

Our spiritual practice is to be consciously in the presence through our mindful affirmative prayer, meditation, spiritual reading and service.

This practice then becomes a spiritual habit. We use the power of Spirit unconsciously. It becomes the very fabric of our lives. Wonderful results ensue.

Spirit can then express through both our conscious and unconscious use of it. Kindness, compassion and the pure joy of shared love become our way of living in both our individual and community lives.

As enter the season of fall, let us be confident in the Spirit which dwells within and steady in our regular spiritual practice. Much joy comes from that.

Love and Blessings Always,

Rev Maur

TREATMENT FOR OCTOBER

The voice of God is continuously speaking the nature and substance of the universe. God is the pure Consciousness of Truth, a totality of awareness that intends Its creations to carry the Word forward, creating an individual experience for each individual expression of the One.

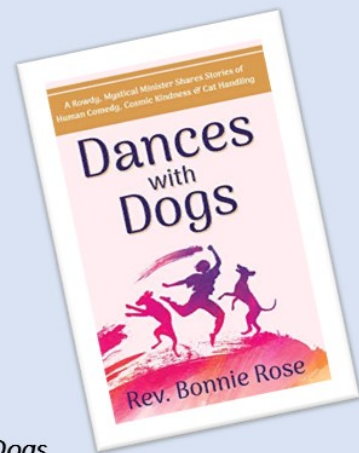

In the solitude of my own mind, God speaks to me of love and joy and peace. It teaches me about myself. Speaking of Itself as me, It declares, "I AM Love; I AM Peace; I AM Joy!"

That knowing within is irresistible. I find it more compelling than any condition in my life. I return to it again and again, drawing upon its wisdom and translating it into ideas for living a better life.

This Word that I speak unto Universal Mind establishes within me a lasting preference for Truth over fact. I know where God is; I know what the Word means, and I let It teach me to speak with Its voice. Announcing truth first, my mind proceeds from there into the activities of Joy, Peace, and Love.
