August 2025 Joyful News.

Holmes wrote, "This, then, is the teaching: Love and Law." This month, our focus is on the Love.

Love is central to our practice of the Science of Mind. It is the very fire of the Universe, the source of all we see, indeed of all our experiences. While Law is important as stated in the principles we teach, love is what gives vibrant color to our lives. Love sparks us to action, to compassion, to fulfillment.

Sundays this month develop the theme of love. You might look up this book by Tich Nhat Hanh, "Teachings on Love," or "This Thing Called You" by Ernest Holmes.

See if you can find new ways to express your love this month. It will be a fun summertime experiment.

Thanks to everyone who participated in the rummage sale.
It netted $1600 for the chapel!!!

Woodland Chapel recycles...

Bring your cans and bottles and put them in the recycle bin.

I find this a great service as I am not keen on making the effort myself to go to the recycling building. As an additional benefit, Woodland Chapel receives a check now and then. Your effort is appreciated. Rev. Julie
