TIMPSON PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

After the commission was opened with prayer, Rev. L. B. Gibbs was elected Chairman, the docket was adopted and Rev. Cook Freeman was appointed clerk. Elder W. T. O'Neal was present.

Motion was adopted to receive the following into the membership of the Timpson Presbyterian Church: By letter from the Tiger Presbyterian Church: W. C. Phillips, Mrs. W. C. Phillips, Harold Mincemoyer, Mrs. Harold Mincemoyer, Talmadge Hockifield, Gayle Hollifield, Elaine Hollifield, Mrs. Homer Parker, Mrs. Tate Hunter, Mrs. Porter English, George English, Jerry English, Buddy Ross English, Richard L. English, William Phillips, Mrs. William Phillips, Jean Phillips, Ralph English, Mrs. Ralph English, Betty Jane English, Claude Hollifield, Mrs. Claude Hollifield, Mrs. Mary Hollifield, Mrs. Ralis English, Barbara English, Mrs. Bernice Turner, Mrs. Dan Crane, R. E. Thompson, Mrs. R. E. Thompson, Mrs. Opal Rogers; on her own statement of membership in the Clayton Baptist Church, Mrs. Mart Hollifield.

After the sermon by Rev. Cook Freeman, Rev. L. B. Gibbs administered the Covenant. Just before the floor was opened for nominations for the Ruling Elders, a portion of I Timothy was read to the assembled group. The congregation nominated Mr. Ralph English and Mr. Richard English to the office of Elder. After a motion closed the nominations, these two were elected to the office. The congregation nominated Messrs. Harold Mincemoyer, Talmadge Hollifield and William Phillips as Deacons. After a motion closed the nominations, these three men were elected to the office of Deacon.

After the singing of a hymn, Rev. Cook Freeman pronounced the benediction.

The members of the Commission assembled and after the reading of the minutes, a motion to adjourn was adopted and Elder William O'Neal led the closing prayer.
