SHILOH CHURCH, GREENE CO., GA.,
November 22, 1896.

Your committee having been requested by the Church in Conference to present at this meeting some thought in regard to our beloved pastor, who has seen fit to tender to this Church his resignation, beg leave to present the following thoughts.

Our Bro. and Pastor who is so generally known by the Christian people throughout this section of Georgia, and especially in the bounds of the Georgia Association, needs no commendation for Christian character.

Members of this Church have been born and arrived to years of maturity under the sound of his voice, presenting a crucified Savior, and appealing in a sympathetic way to depraved human nature, to accept Jesus and live.

This church and people know nothing but to love, honor and respect him for the twenty years of service he has so faithfully rendered.

In accepting his resignation we do so realizing that this Church, which he has so faithfully served, sustains a great loss.

Our Bro. John S. Callaway, was called to take charge of this Church in the year 1877, by such pious and unpretentious brethren as Wm. Mayo, James Jenkins, Fred McWhorter and Reuben West, all of whom have finished their work and now await the resurrection to receive the reward which awaits those who remain faithful unto the end.

It may be well to put upon record the fact that our Pastor, during this long period of service, has never disappointed his congregation; never letting anything keep him from filling his pulpit at all appointed meetings. Such is the confidence of this people, that his service at the marriage altar, as well as at the grave, was at all times sought and as often times rendered. At all times he has commanded the respect and confidence of those who made no pretensions of religion.

To give even an outline of his work at this Church alone, or to present his Christian character in its loveliness, would require the effort of a more fertile brain than that of your Committee. We can truthfully say that our hearts are made sad in accepting his resignation, and assure him that he has our love, confidence and respect.

That our prayers for his happiness here, and a dwelling place with the God he serves, go up in his behalf. We know of nothing more commendable than to present the fact that our Pastor has labored among this people for twenty years without giving offense, and resigns of his own will; realizing that his physical strength requires more rest, and believing that the Church would be benefitted by a change, are the reasons for his resignation. In presenting these few remarks, we do so realizing the fact that they are presented somewhat in a different form from that usually pursued, and present them for the adoption or rejection of the Church in Conference.

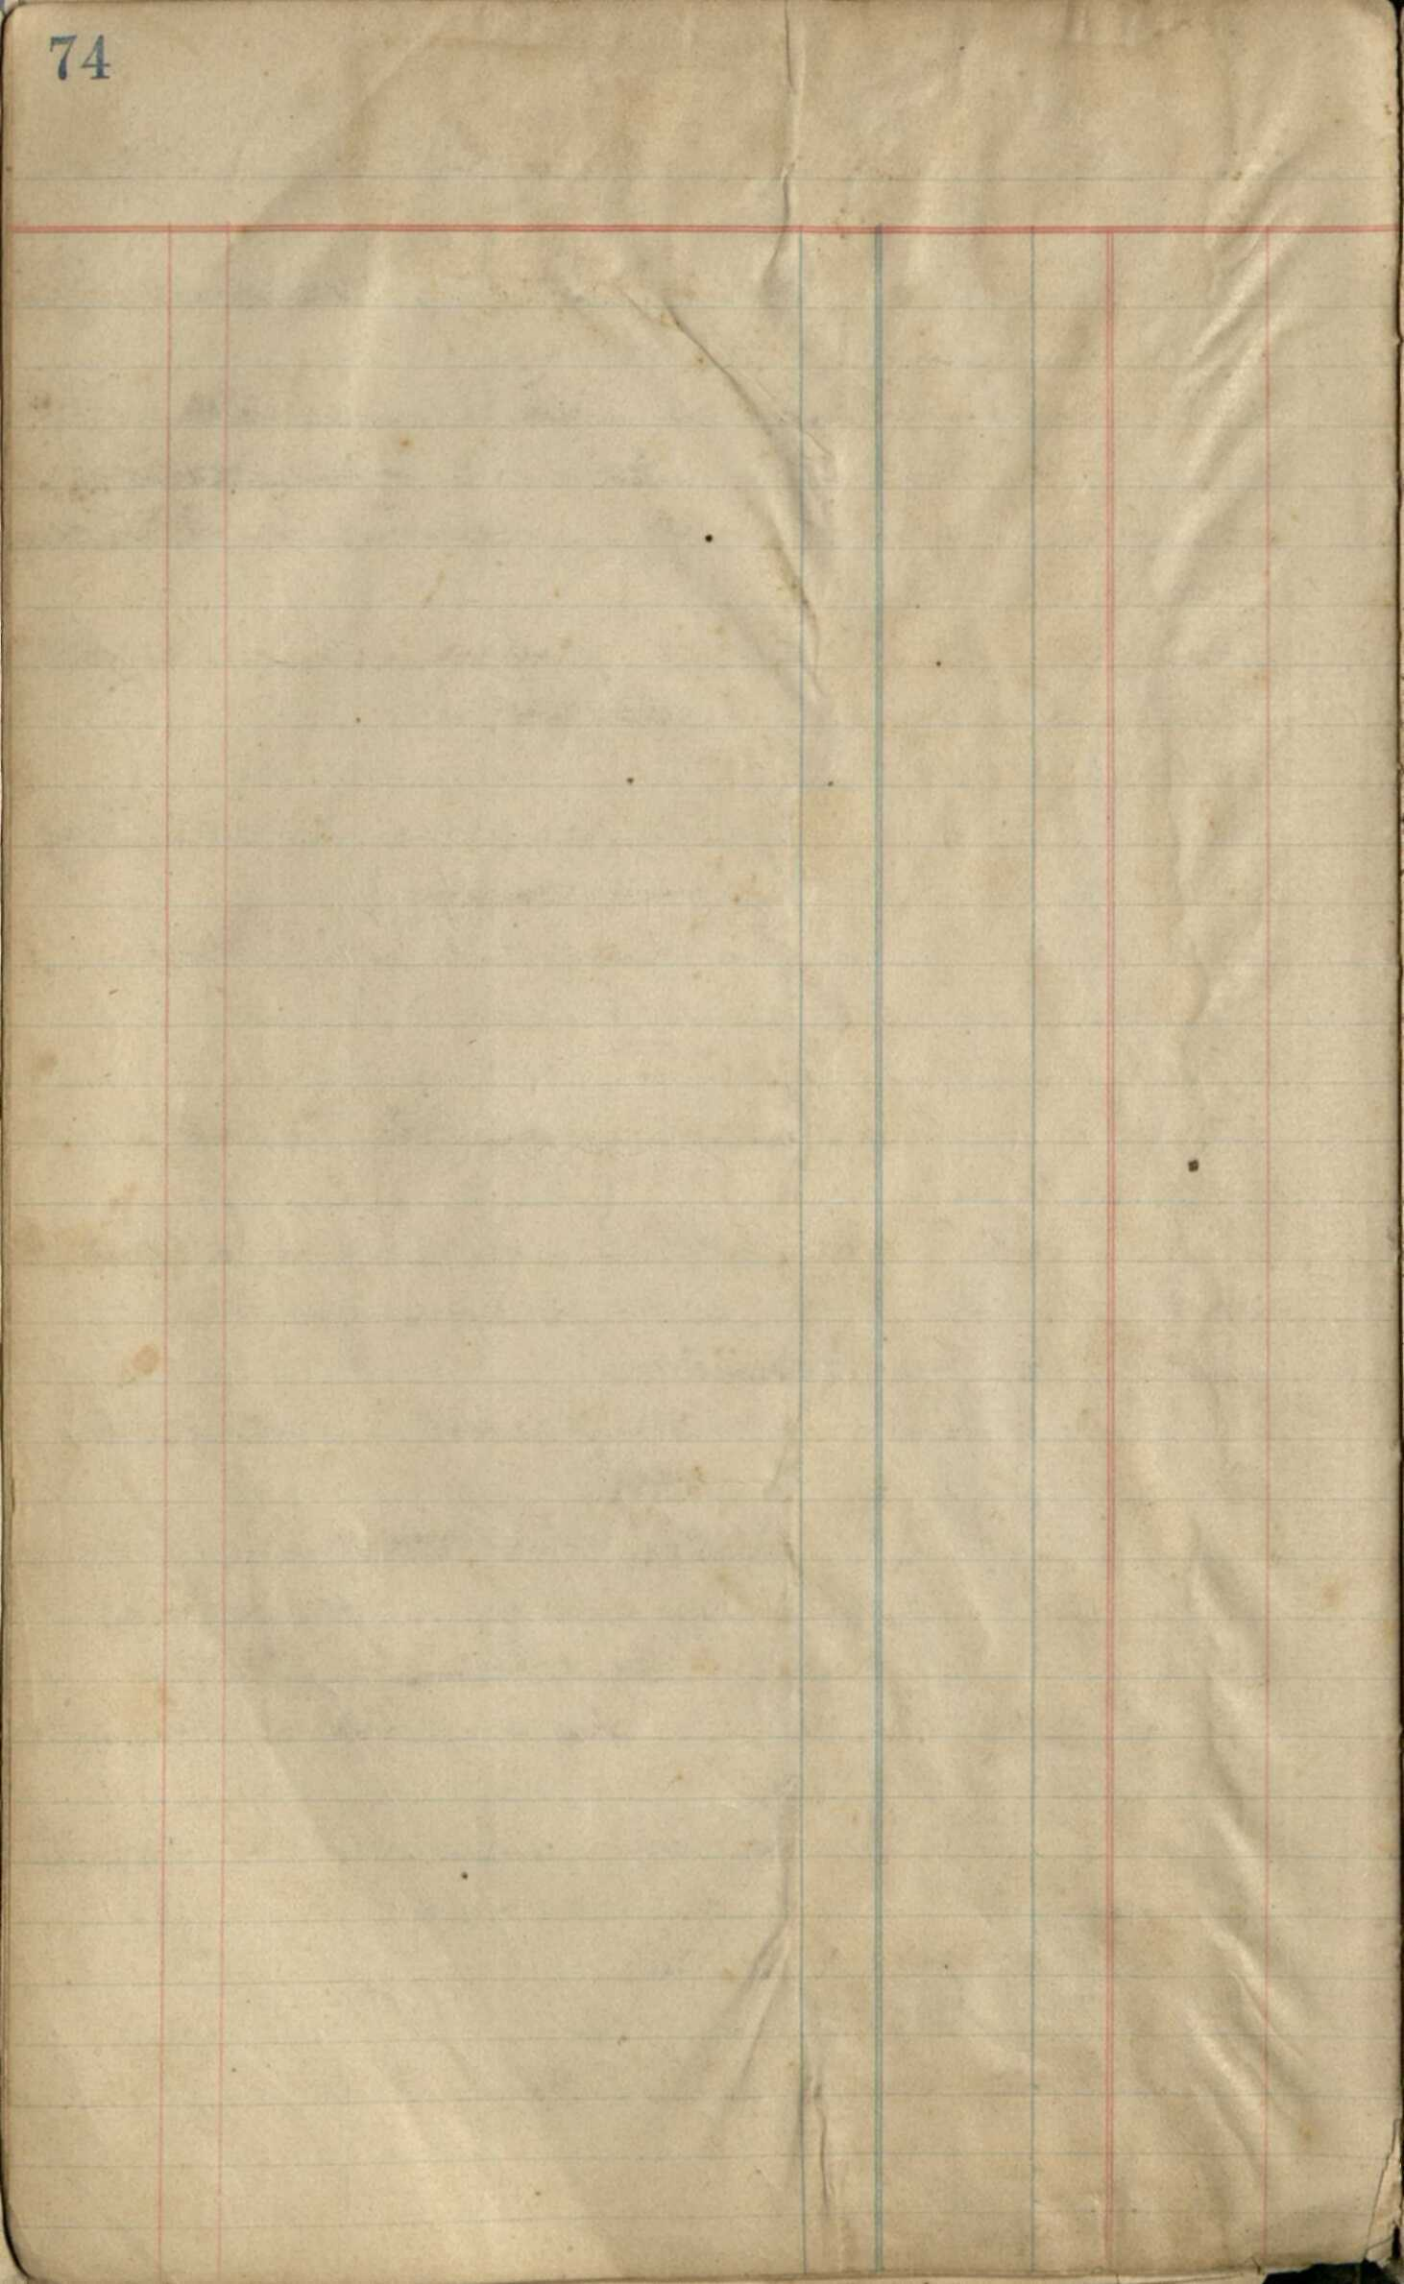

Respectfully submitted,

J. J. FINCH,
J. H. ADERHOLD,
Committee.

Moved and adopted by the Church in Conference, and ordered printed in the Herald-Journal and Christian Index, also to be spread upon the Church book and a copy furnished our Pastor, John S. Callaway.

F. C. MULLINS,

RESOLUTIONS

Of Shiloh Church, on the Resignation of Their Pastor, Rev. J. H. Gambrell.

Whereas, Circumstances have rendered it necessary that the relation which has proved so pleasant, between our beloved Rev. J. H. Gambrell, and this church, should be severed; therefore be it

Resolved, That it is with hearts filled with the deepest regret and sorrow that we part from him. Although his pastorate with us has been short, lasting only about ten months, he has won a place in the hearts and affections of this people, that it will be hard for any man to reach.

Resolved 2nd, That not only Shiloh church, sustains a loss in Bro. Gambrell's removal to another State, but this community, Greene county and the State of Georgia will feel his loss. A man of remarkable courage, he will stand for the right. The invincible foe of all he believes to be wrong. He is a tried and true friend, a man that can be trusted. A wise counsellor and a tender, loving brother.

Resolved 3rd, That we commend him to the tenderest love and kindest affections of his new charge, in his distant western home, and to the grace of the most High God. May the all-sustaining love abide always with him and his loved ones, in whatever part of His vineyard the Lord may call them to labor, and the good wishes and prayers of this church will follow them.

We recommend that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the church record, a copy be furnished our beloved pastor and a copy sent to the Christian Index and the Herald-Journal for publication.

Done by order of the church in conference, Dec. 4th, 1897.

Rules of Discipline for the church at Shiloh Cherokee County Georgia.

Article 1st

It shall be the duty of each member to attend each stated and occasional meetings of the churches conference, and when member twice failing to attend without a satisfactory excuse, it shall be the duty of the Deacons of this Church to report the case to the conference.

" 2nd

Conferences shall open by singing and prayer.

" 3rd

In the absence of the Pastor the oldest Deacon present shall act as moderator or some experienced brother to preside.

" 4th

It shall be the duty of the moderator at the opening of the conference to invite visiting brethren to seats with us, and when the door ^{for} the reception of members into the church.

" 5th

The church shall have a clerk and assistant clerk whose duty it shall be to attend all conferences and to record the proceedings and assign the orders.

" 6th

The church thus organized shall take up all references in the order of the day and then act on any other business that shall be presented in Gospel order.

7th
No motion shall be debated until seconded, and no question shall claim the attention of the conference without the consent of the majority 8th of the church.

9th Every member speaking ^{when} shall rise from his seat and address the moderator in a mild and christian-like manner, shall not be interrupted while speaking, unless he departs from the subject: nor shall any member speak more than twice on the same subject without permission from the moderator.

10th It shall be the duty of each member to attend and partake of the sacrament; and if any member shall live in repeated neglect of this duty it shall be the duty of the deacons to inquire into the cause of this continued neglect and if a satisfactory reason is not given report it to the church for a decision in the case.

11th No male member shall vacate his seat while in conference without leave from the moderator.

12th It shall be the duty of the clerk to read this document at the opening of each quarterly conference, and often if required by the church.

It shall be the duty of the moderator to pay particular attention that the foregoing rules are observed.
(over)

13th

Any of the foregoing rules may be altered or amended by the concurrence of a majority present at any regular conference.

The duty of the Deacons to be read quarterly

- Article 1st It is the duty of The Deacons to attend to the table of the Lord, to see all communicants seated as convenient as circumstances will permit.
- 2nd to attend to the minister or Pastor of the Church, by seeing that they are provided for and that their families do not lack, by urging on members that they who preach the gospel shall live by it, regard being had, both to the necessities of Pastor and the abilities of Churches and their members to administer to their wants.
- 3rd To see that the poor of the Church, and especially widows are provided for, and not permitted to suffer.
- 4th It being the duty of all members to inquire into and endeavor to settle difficulties that may exist among members of the Churches. It is considered that the Deacons being officers or servants of the Church should feel more deeply interested in settling differences that may exist, and reclaiming a brother who may be in error.
- 5th When preaching has been expected, and no minister is in attendance or at prayer meetings, the Deacons should request some experience brother to go forward, or feel themselves

under obligations to have all things conducted for the furtherance of the cause of Christ.

Article 6th They shall enjoin on members the necessity of attending all conferences meetings, to put in order the affairs of the Lords house, prayer meeting family worship and especially communion meetings, and to inquire the cause of any failing to attend.

Article 7th In conclusion all the duties devolving on ministers are enjoined on Deacons except preaching the Gospel and administering the ordinances.

Adopted by the Church

August 31st 1839

E. C. Shackelford S. C. C.

Articles of faith

- 1st we believe the Bible to be the word of God, written by men divinely inspired and our only rule of faith and practice.
- 2nd we believe in one living and true God existing in three persons, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and these three equal in wisdom, power and glory.
- 3rd we believe in the fall of man from his original righteousness and in the utter depravity of his nature.
- 4th we believe that man is wholly unable to recover himself from his lost and ruined state, but that his inability to obey God's law, consisting in the depravity and rebellion of his nature, furnishes no excuse for rejecting the call of the Gospel.
- 5th we believe in a covenant of redemption between the Father and the Son, the doctrine of election, effectual calling, justification by the imputed righteousness of Christ, regeneration by the Holy Spirit, the unchangeable love of God to his people, and their perseverance in grace to glory.
- 6th we believe in the resurrection of the body, the final judgment.

F

The eternal happiness of the righteous,
and the endless misery of the wicked.

7th We believe that a properly constituted Church of Christ, is a congregation of immersed believers associatedly covenanted in the fellowship of the Gospel, and governed by the laws of Christ, the offices of the Church are Bishops or Pastors, and Deacons.
The ordinances are immersion
and the Lords Supper.

The former to be administered to believers, only by an authorised administrator, and the latter to such persons only as are thus immersed.

8th We believe that the first day of the week is the Lords day, and to be kept holy and to religious purposes, works of necessity and mercy only being allowed.

X
Church Covenant

Having been as we trust brought by divine grace to embrace our Lord Jesus to give up ourselves wholly to Him, we solemnly and joyfully covenant with each-other to walk together in him,
 with all humility and brotherly love,
 to watch over each other for good,
 and to stir up each other to love and good works, not forsaking the frequent assembling of ourselves together to worship God according to His revealed will, as occasion may require, to warn, rebuke and admonish each other according to the rules of the gospel, that the growth of the whole body in christian knowledge and holiness
 may be thereby promoted.
 To the end we may stand complete
 in all the will of God;
 for the same purpose we will uphold the public worship of God, and the ordinances of His house,
 and hold constant communion with each other therein; we will cheerfully contribute of our property for the maintainance of a faithful ministry of the Gospel
 among us, and for the extension of the blessed Redeemer's Kingdom universally.
 We will not omit family and closet religion at home nor allom

Our selves in the too common neglect of the great and important duty of religiously training our children for the service of God and the gloryment of heaven. we will also sympathize with each other in seasons of temptations and afflictions and be ready to distribute to the necessities of the saints.

x we will especially pray with and for each other; for the Church universally for the promised effusion of the Holy Spirit; for the prosperity of Zion and the ingathering of the elect. And may the God of peace who brought again from the dead Our Lord Jesus Christ, that great Shepherd of the sheep; through the blood of the everlasting covenant make us perfect in every good work to do his will, that we may not only enjoy a name and a place in His Church on earth, but finally unite with the glorious church of the First Born in Heaven, in ascribing blessing and honor, might, majesty and dominion to Him who sitteth on the Throne and to the Lamb forever.
