OptConnect Named a Top Workplace by The Salt Lake Tribune for Second Consecutive Year

(SILICON SLOPES, Utah) December 9, 2020 – OptConnect, a longtime leader in managed wireless services, today announced that they have been awarded a Top Workplaces 2020 honor by The Salt Lake Tribune. The list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology partner Energage, LLC. The anonymous survey uniquely measures 15 drivers of engaged cultures that are critical to the success of any organization: including alignment, execution, and connection, just to name a few.

“Our employees make incredible things happen for our organization and for our customers every single day,” said Chris Baird, President and CEO at OptConnect. “They work hard and bring a passion for remarkable customer experiences no matter what department or function of the organization they are involved in. Our culture is vibrant because of each of their contributions and dedication to working hard and having fun along the way.”

OptConnect’s company culture is one of great dedication and passion. More than just a fully stocked breakroom, monthly company parties, and a robust suite of benefits, OptConnect’s leadership team focuses on propelling the culture forward in support of employees in each of their weekly meetings in creative and unique ways. It is a constant focus and intentional effort to create an environment that employees can thrive in and want to stay and contribute in for a very long time.

“In times of great change, it is more important than ever to maintain a connection among employees,” said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. “When you give your employees a voice, you come together to navigate challenges and shape your path forward based on real-time insights into what works best for your organization. The Top Workplaces program can be that positive outcome your company can rally around in the coming months to celebrate leadership and the importance of maintaining an employee-focused culture, even during challenging times.”

Winners were honored at a virtual event on December 9th. To join OptConnect’s award-winning culture, please view our job openings at <https://www.optconnect.com/careers>.
