

Port of Tacoma Property Tax Snapshot

Ports operate like private business where our operations are self-funded and public investment is reinvested into the community through infrastructure and environmental projects.

Port of Tacoma property tax is exclusively dedicated to G.O. (general obligation) debt repayment, environmental projects, and transportation and infrastructure projects.

Port portion of property tax bill

Annual Port tax paid by an owner of a home or property valued at $550k in 2023 is approximately $75.

How are Port taxes used?

G.O. (general obligation) debt repayment, environmental projects, and transportation and infrastructure projects.

How are Port taxes NOT used?

Port taxes are not used for any operating costs, including staff salaries and benefits.

