Vocabulary of a Father

Dumbwaiter: One who asks if the children would care to order a dessert.

Grandparents: The people who think your children are wonderful even though you're not raising them right.

Full Name: What you call your child when you're angry with them.

Independent: How we want our children to be for as long as they do everything we say.

Puddle: A small body of water that draws other small bodies wearing dry shoes into.

Show Off: A child who is more talented than yours.

Whodunit: None of the children who live in your house.

Activities for everyone

Every day of the week we offer activities all day long for all tastes and needs of our beloved residents. Their physical, emotional, and spiritual well-being is extremely important to us. We maintain a constant evolution and review of our activity programs, making each day different and very appealing. Workouts, Yoga, Tai-Chi, virtual trips, contact and interaction with virtual pets, mini golf, super balloon volleyball, bingo, memory challenge, word cross, word roulette, karaoke, music lessons, sing-along, tabletop games, arts, coloring, clay shaping, caring for the flowers, sunshine lovers, coffee and conversations, puzzles, bricks and mechanical games. Panoramic outings and performances by excellent musicians. It is a dynamic and constant process of innovation that provides physical, mental, and spiritual well-being to them, our reason for existing as Assisted Living specialized in Memory Care.

Happy Birthday to YOU!

Note from our Executive Director

As we welcome the month of June, we are greeted by longer days, gentle sunshine, and a renewed sense of warmth throughout our community. This season offers time to slow down, reflect, and appreciate the meaningful connections that make our community feel like home.

June also brings moments of special recognition and gratitude. On June 11th, we proudly celebrate Care Staff Day. Our CNAs and HHAs are the heart of our community. They provide hands-on care, comfort, patience, and compassion while building trusting relationships with our residents every day. Their dedication, kindness, and attentiveness make a profound difference in the lives of those we serve, and we are deeply thankful for their commitment and professionalism.

Later this month, we also honor Father's Day, a time to celebrate and recognize the fathers, grandfathers, great-grandfathers, and father figures within our community, our celebration will be held on Friday June 19th. Many of our residents carry remarkable stories of love, guidance, hard work, and devotion. We are honored to celebrate their lives and legacies.

Within our Assisted Living Memory Care community, these moments of appreciation and togetherness remind us why we do what we do. From shared stories and familiar music to simple, quiet moments of connection, love continues to shine through in countless ways.

Happy Father's Day
