

Starting June 11!!

June 11th - September 9th

"In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes."

(Judges 17:6, 21:25)

For the edification of our church body, we encourage you to read and think deeply through the book of Judges this summer. If you are the head of a household, bring your family along with you through as many of these readings this summer as you can. If you are not the head of a household, do your readings with others. We also encourage you to read through Judges: Such a Great Salvation, written by the excellent commentator, Dale Ralph Davis.

Starting June 4, this commentary can be purchased at the Summer Advance Table for only $9! You can also find it on Amazon for $9.63 (Kindle version: $8.64). The reading assignments on the back of the page will include the appropriate sections of Davis' commentary to be read as you work through the book of Judges.

DO YOU DARE TO READ JUDGES?

"The Book of Judges...is so earthy, so puzzling, so primitive, so violent –in a word, so strange, that the church can scarcely stomach it. As with many Old Testament materials, the sentiment seems to be, 'If we just study the epistles long enough, maybe it will go away.' The church has her way of dealing with embarrassing Scripture; ignore it. Yet that is difficult to do with judges. It's so interesting. Only people who take tranquilizers before sitting down can doze off while they read it.

Yet there is danger in that. When a book and its human characters are so colorful and dramatic we may miss the books intention - to be a revelation from God about God." (Dale Ralph Davis)
