

Christ Takes Away the Veil

“For to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away” (2 Corinthians 3:14).

Guided by Jesus’ own exposition of the Old Testament, we see throughout Scripture Christ repeatedly revealing Himself to His distressed people, igniting their hearts toward worship and action.

1. Christ Unveils Himself to and through His _____.

2. Christ Unveils Himself to and through _____ and _____.

3. Christ Unveils Himself to and through _____ and _____
_____.

4. Christ Unveils Himself to and through the _____ and _____
_____.

Concluding Question: How is Christ unveiling Himself to and through _____
_____?