

Starting June 7!!

June 7th – August 29th

“For I know the plans that I have for you,’ declares the LORD, ‘plans for welfare and not for calamity to give you a future and a hope.’”

(Jeremiah 29:11)

For your spiritual edification, we encourage you to read and reflect deeply on the books of Jeremiah and Lamentations this summer. If you are the head of a household, consider bringing your family along with you through as many of these readings as possible (using the reading assignments on the following page as a guide).

As you work through these two books, feel free to make use of resources that can help with difficult-to-understand passages. The MacArthur Study Bible is an excellent resource, providing introductory information and helpful notes throughout. PreceptAustin.org and BlueLetterBible.org also offer a wealth of interpretive help, articles, and commentaries.

Our prayer is that the Lord would use these books to deepen your understanding of His holiness, His faithfulness, and His unfailing mercy!

Great is God’s Faithfulness!

“Jeremiah and Lamentations remind us that God is faithful even when His people are not. Judgment is never His final word to those who belong to Him; mercy and hope still shine through the darkest ruins.”

(Charles Spurgeon)
