OpenStage Theatre to Postpone Production of “Sense and Sensibility,” and move “Hedwig and the Angry Inch” to 50th Season in 2022-2023

FORT COLLINS - Due to the prevalence of the Omicron variant in Larimer County, OpenStage has decided, for the health and safety of the Community and Artists, to postpone and reschedule Sense & Sensibility to March 26 – April 23, 2022.

All Season ticket holders and individual ticket holders will receive an email from the Lincoln Center Box Office with instructions regarding rescheduling performance dates for Sense and Sensibility. Please call the Lincoln Center Box Office for more information (970-221-6730)

Single ticket holders who do not respond for a date change by 6pm February 1, 2022 will receive a refund issued by the Lincoln Center box office shortly after.

Due to the shifting of shows during the season, Hedwig And The Angry Inch will be canceled this season and moved to OpenStage’s 50th Season in 2022-2023.

Season ticket holders ( Full Story, Essential Story, Matinee Lover) and Individual ticket holders can donate the amount of their ticket or receive a refund by contacting the Lincoln Center Box Office (970-221-6730) by March 1, 2022. After this date, refunds will be issued automatically.

For patrons with the Flex Pack Season Ticket Package, ticket(s) for Hedwig And The Angry Inch will be returned to their existing package to be used for any other show in the remaining 2021-2022 Season.

OpenStage Theatre & Company requires that all patrons 5 and older are fully vaccinated against COVID-19 before attending indoor seated performances in the Magnolia Theatre at the Lincoln Center. Children under 5 must show a negative COVID-19 test. Masks are required for all audience members two and older and are available upon request. Please view the entire policy at <https://www.openstage.com/vaccination-and-mask-policy/>
