Set Sail On a Summer Expedition With “Treasure Island”

OpenStage Brings the Modern Adaptation of a Beloved Novel to Fort Collins

FORT COLLINS – Hoist your sails, and prepare for the journey of a lifetime!—OpenStage Theatre & Company is proud to present the last show in our fabulous 50th Essential Season, Treasure Island, Written by Robert Louis Stevenson, Adapted by Bryony Lavery, and Directed by Kate Austin-Gröen. The Park at Columbine Health Systems will transform into the high seas and the mighty Hispaniola, as a young woman and a misfit crew fervidly hunt down the hidden treasures of Treasure Island.

Set sail on a thrilling journey with cutthroat pirates, a treasure map, and a courageous young girl named Jim, who becomes entangled in a dangerous swashbuckling expedition. Jim gets more than she bargains for when she embarks on a daring sea voyage to an exotic island where a hoard of gold and gems is buried. Awash with treachery, mutiny, and unforgettable characters, including the infamous Long John Silver, Treasure Island comes alive in an epic theatrical adaptation of one of the world’s greatest adventure stories.
