

AMENDMENT REVIEW PROCESS

Public comment is accepted throughout this entire process. Planning Commission meetings are also open for the public to attend and provide comments.

1

Planning Commission Review

Planning Commission reviews preliminary draft amendments during one or more meetings. They then set a public hearing with a minimum 20-day notice.

2

Planning Commission Public Hearing

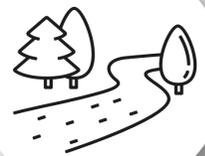

Community members can comment at a Planning Commission public hearing. A Board recommendation may follow.

3

SEPA Determination

Proposed amendments undergo environmental review.

4

BoCC Briefing

BoCC reviews recommendations and public comments received, provides feedback, and sets a public hearing with a minimum 20-day notice.

5

BoCC Public Hearing

Community members can comment at a BoCC public hearing or submit a written comment. Additional board review and decision may follow.

6

BoCC Decision

Staff submits an adopting resolution and ordinance to the BoCC. They can only adopt changes to the Comprehensive Plan once per year.

