Experiential Supervision

Date: April 8th, 2022

Time: 9—11 am

Location: Multnomah University

Instructors: Mariah LeFeber, Dance/Movement Therapist, LPC, OR approved supervisor, PhD Candidate (Counselor Education & Supervision)

Credit Hours: 2 CE's

Cost: $30 for community members
$20 for MU alumni, faculty & supervisors of current MU student interns

Program Description:

In this two hour workshop, supervisors will engage both sides of their brains as they explore together the topic of experiential supervision. Following a lecture defining and describing experiential supervision, attendees will dive in together. Through creative thinking, engaging the five senses, noticing their embodied experiences, and even some movement, attendees will glean tips for providing holistic clinical supervision. Come prepared to learn with your whole selves!

Program Objectives:

1. Attendees will be able to define experiential supervision and explain its value to the field of clinical supervision.
2. Attendees will learn and engage in experiential practices.
3. With others, attendees will brainstorm ideas for how they might utilize experiential practices in their own clinical supervision setting.

CE Disclaimer: Program was developed to meet continuing education requirements for the Oregon and Washington Licensed Counselor Boards. It is participants responsibility to maintain records to confirm program with their licensing board.
