

Master of Arts in Counseling Program Assistant Professor – Counseling and Psychology

- Position Description: Multnomah University Graduate Department in Counseling invites applications for a full-time Assistant Professor with an anticipated start date on (or before) January 1, 2023.
A full-time faculty position with a course load of 24 credits per year, splitting teaching responsibilities between the Master of Arts in Counseling program and traditional undergraduate psychology program. Additional responsibilities include academic advising and university service. Area of specialization is open, however a special area of expertise is desired (e.g., substance abuse counseling, neuropsychology, psychological testing, sports psychology).
- Minimum Requirements: This position requires a doctorate-level degree in Counselor Education & Supervision (ABD will be considered), LPC license in Oregon (or license eligible), and a desire to teach and mentor both undergraduate and graduate students. Teaching experience is preferred. Applicants are expected to have relevant professional experiences in the field and ongoing research interests. Support of the University mission and doctrinal statement is required.

The preferred candidate will have experience teaching in a variety of modalities, a strong interest in faith integration, and an active research interest that could potentially involve students.
- Institutional Information: Multnomah University includes undergraduate and graduate programs as well as Multnomah Biblical Seminary located in Portland, OR. All programs are coeducational and interdenominational. Founded in 1936, the college, graduate school, and seminary have established a renowned heritage of excellence in biblical education equipping Christian men and women to transform our culture and the world. The college offers B.A. degrees in 20 majors as well as four university M.A. programs. The seminary offers the M.A., M.Div., Th.M., and D.Min. degrees.
Multnomah University is accredited with the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU). Multnomah Biblical Seminary is accredited with the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). In addition, Multnomah University is a member of the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCU).
- Compensation: Compensation commensurate with education and experience.
Compensation includes Full time benefits, including medical & dental options, vision, life, short and long-term disability policies beginning the first day of the month following one month of employment. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.
- To Apply: Interested candidates should be prepared to attach a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching philosophy, and a statement describing your personal Christian faith when applying online. Find the online application here: Careers | Multnomah University
- Contact: Dr, Kristen M. White, Director of the Master of Arts in Counseling Program
kwhite@multnomah.edu

Anticipated start January 1, 2023. This position will be posted until filled.

---

MULTNOMAH UNIVERSITY