

Assistant/Associate Professor of Psychology

Position Description:	Multnomah University Psychology Department invites applications for a full-time Assistant Professor with an anticipated start date of July 1, 2023. This is a full-time faculty position with a course load of 24 credits per year, primarily in the traditional, on-campus undergraduate psychology program. Additional responsibilities include academic advising and university service. Area of specialization is open, however a special area of expertise is desired (e.g., substance abuse counseling, neuropsychology, psychological testing, sports psychology, etc.).
Minimum Requirements:	This position requires a doctorate-level degree in Psychology, Counseling, or a related field (ABD will be considered) and a desire to teach and mentor undergraduate students. Teaching experience is preferred. Applicants are expected to have relevant professional experiences in the field and ongoing research interests. Support of the University mission and doctrinal statement is required. The preferred candidate will have experience teaching in a variety of modalities, a strong interest in faith integration, and an active research interest that could potentially involve students. Diverse candidates are encouraged to apply.
Institutional Information:	Multnomah University includes undergraduate and graduate programs as well as Multnomah Biblical Seminary located in Portland, OR. All programs are coeducational and interdenominational. Founded in 1936, the college, graduate school, and seminary have established a renowned heritage of excellence in biblical education equipping Christian men and women to transform our culture and the world. The college offers B.A. degrees in 20 majors as well as four university M.A. programs. The seminary offers the M.A., M.Div., Th.M., and D.Min. degrees. Multnomah University is regionally accredited with the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU). Multnomah Biblical Seminary is accredited with the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). In addition, Multnomah University is a governing member with the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCU).
Compensation:	Compensation commensurate with education and experience. Compensation includes Full Time Benefits, including options for Medical, Dental, Vision, Life, Short-term and Long-term Disability benefits beginning the first day of the month following one month of employment.
Apply:	Click Here for Online Application
Contact:	Elliott Lawless, Psy.D. elawless@multnomah.edu 503.251.6430