

Adjunct Professor Opportunities - Math

Position Description:	The Undergraduate School at Multnomah University is seeking adjunct professors to teach math in the General Education department.
Minimum Requirements:	The ideal candidate will possess a minimum of a master's degree or equivalent experience. Teaching experience in college algebra, pre-calculus, and calculus is preferred. Agreement with the National Association of Evangelicals Statement of Faith and Multnomah University's Statement of Ethical Values is required, as is a willingness to integrate biblical principles in subject matter.
Institutional Information:	Multnomah University includes undergraduate and graduate programs as well as Multnomah Biblical Seminary located in Portland, OR. All programs are coeducational and interdenominational. Founded in 1936, the college, graduate school, and seminary have established a renowned heritage of excellence in biblical education equipping Christian men and women to transform our culture and the world. The college offers Bachelors degrees in 20 majors as well as five university Masters programs. The seminary offers the M.A., M.Div., and D.Min. degrees. Multnomah University is accredited with the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU). The Multnomah Biblical Seminary is accredited with the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). In addition, Multnomah University is an affiliate with the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCCU)
Compensation:	$2,016 to $2,571 per course based on credit hours and earned degree.
Apply:	Click Here for Online Application
Contact:	Karen Fancher, Interim Dean of MU Undergraduate School kfancher@multnomah.edu, 503.251.5312