Sensory tips & Activity Suggestions

Busy places

- The busiest time to visit is usually early to mid-morning. Quieter times are generally mid- to late weekday afternoons, early Saturday mornings, and early afternoon on Sundays. The park grounds are open from 8:30 a.m.–sundown every day, and the goats are out (weather permitting) from 9 a.m.–4:30 p.m. Monday–Saturday and 1:30–4:30 p.m. Sunday.

Quiet places

- The walking trails (Jones Creek Trail 0.7 miles, Hunnicut Trail 0.4 miles) offer quiet, shady opportunities to explore. The pecan grove also provides a shady area to rest or picnic under one of the historic pecan trees. The fishing pond also offers a quiet, recreational opportunity (bring your own supplies, NC freshwater fishing regulations apply).

Tips for a great visit

- All of our buildings are closed to the public until further notice, due to COVID-19. The park grounds are open for self-guided visits and there is still lots to explore. You will be able to walk around the historic buildings, but not go inside. Visitors are asked to maintain social distancing and wear a mask when that isn't possible. Public restrooms are available in the Carriage House building.
- Be sure to visit our goats, and you can even bring baby carrots or diced apples and feed them a treat! (Please check in with staff before feeding them). The chickens, located next to the Tenant House, are also fun to watch as they scratch in and around their coop!

WELCOME TO HISTORIC OAK VIEW

ABOUT THE PARK

Founded in 1829, Oak View was a middle-class farm that expanded to encompass more than 900 acres. Today, the 27-acre site includes historic farm buildings and grounds that offer a glimpse into the successful farmstead and the different families who lived and worked there over the years. Explore and connect with daily farm life by strolling through the grounds, picnicking and fishing in the ponds. Although the farmers, crops and livestock are now gone, the land and remaining buildings continue to tell the farm's story.

RECREATION

Relax and enjoy the park's natural beauty. Enjoy a picnic, cast a line in the ponds (NC freshwater fishing regulations apply), stroll through the orchards and gardens, or take a hike down a shaded trail. Planning a gathering? Two picnic shelters are available to rent.

TOURS

Oak View accepts reservations for guided tours for all ages and curriculum-based educational programs for elementary school-aged students. Want to tour the park on your own? Ask any staff member about free, self-guided activities.

PLACES FOR KIDS TO LEARN AND PLAY

The popular, interactive "Farmer's Corner" in the Farm History Center teaches children about farm life through hands-on activities, games, puzzles and books. Put your imagination to work and try your hand at farm chores at the "All in a Day's Work" station in the livestock barn.

FARM ANIMALS

The chickens and goats love welcoming visitors to the park, so make sure to stop by and see them. The chicken coop is located next to the Tenant House, and the goats can be found in one of the outdoor pens or in the barn.

EXHIBITS

Exhibits in many of the park's buildings interpret farm life from the 19th century to today.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Thousands of people visit Oak View each year for family-friendly events like Heritage Day in October and Sleigh Rides and Cider in December.
