CRANKWORX CAIRNS 2022 - TECH ZONE RULES AND REGULATIONS

- The 2022 Crankworx Cairns Tech Zone is organised by GTR Events.
 - Cairns 2022 and its organisers do not take any responsibility or liability for stolen or damaged items within the Tech Zone.
- 1) These rules and regulations define the conditions in which GTR Events organised and operated the tech zone. It specifies the obligations and the rights of the company/team and of the organiser. The company/team formally commits to respecting and upholding the rules outlined in this document.
 - 2) The tech zone will take place in within the venue at Crankworx Cairns from Tuesday October 4th until Sunday October 10th 2022. The organiser can also decide to prolong, postpone or shorten the event. In any of these circumstances the company/team will not be entitled to any compensation. If new dates are issued and are not approved by the company/team, the amounts already paid will not be reimbursed.
 - 3) There is no exclusivity guaranteed with respect to company/team products.
 - 4) Payment must be made in full prior to the company/ team arriving onsite.
 - 5) In the event that any portion of the tech zone is cancelled for any reasons beyond the control of the organisers, neither party shall have any further obligations or liabilities to the other, no compensation or indemnity can be requested nor shall any payments be returned. There will be no refunds due to inclement weather.
 - 6) Completed application forms must be returned to the GTR Events. Applications can/will only be taken into consideration as long as tech zone spaces remain available. GTR Events has the right to accept or refuse any application and freely assign the location of the booth.
 - 7) Applications will no longer be accepted after Friday September 30th 2022, 5pm (Australian Eastern Standard Time)
 - 8) Terms of cancellation: The organiser must be notified in writing of any cancellation of tech zone bookings.
 - 9) Teams who fail to set up their space within the defined bump-in hours will forfeit their space with no refund. The team commits to not remove its booth and tent before the defined bump-out hours.
 - 10) It is strictly forbidden for the company/team to transfer parts or the entire booth to anybody else. Only the entitled company/team can occupy the reserved space. The company/team commits to:
 - a) Only displaying products or services that are related to the company/team's brand.
 - b) Not advertising anything that may be misleading or constitute unfair competition.
 - 11) The amount of signage used is to be mutually determined by the company/team and GTR Events.
 - a) GTR Events reserves the right to remove excessive signage at its own discretion.
 - 12) Any onsite activations outside of regular tech zone activities have to be pre-approved by the event organisers.

- b) Any sampling, give-aways or other commercial activity has to be approved by the organisers prior to the setup of the tech zone and is restricted to the location of the designated area space.
- 13) The company/team is solely responsible to comply with any legal restrictions imposed by Australian laws regarding onsite activities.
- 14) Company/team parking is not available on site, except for permitted vehicles. Registered vehicles will receive a parking permit that has to be visible at all times. The company/team cannot park any non-registered vehicles anywhere in the tech zone. An event-parking site in walking distance to the tech zone will be available for additional cars.
- 15) The company/team shall be solely responsible for the timely clean up after completion of the festival as well as ongoing clean-up of the booth. This includes having sufficient garbage/recycling bins at each site. Garbage and recycling must be removed from the sites each day. A central garbage disposal location will be provided by the organiser.
- 16) Open fire in the whole festival area (including tech zone) is strictly prohibited. Any contravention is a cause for exclusion from the festival.
- 17) The company/team displays all products AT THEIR OWN RISK; please do not leave any valuables unattended. The event organisers assume no liability or responsibility for damage, theft or loss of company/team product or equipment.
- 18) Security will be available for the general event area. There will NOT be a specific security guard dedicated to the tech zone.
- 19) GTR Events being the organiser of the tech zone “Crankworx Cairns 2022”, is liable under civil law. This responsibility does not cover any damage caused by third parties to visitors or teams or by company/team to visitors and third parties.

NOTE: It is the responsibility of the company/team to insure their booth against theft, damage caused by water, fire, wind. The organiser is not liable for any of these instances. The company/team will be responsible for any damage caused by its staff or from the set-up of the booth. The company/team must have public liability insurance and must provide the organiser with a copy of their insurance with their application.

- 20) GTR Events has the right to rule on all instances not covered by these rules and regulations, and to add or modify them. If such an instance were to take place, GTR Events has the right to immediately enforce any new or modified rules or regulations. The memorandum sent to the company/team subsequently will be part of this signed document.
- 21) All transgressions from the rules and regulations can lead to the eviction from the exhibition without notice given to the infringing company/team. Any payments made will not be reimbursed. The GTR Events will be allowed to use the allocated area as it wishes.
- 22) All instructions by Crankworx Cairns, associated companies and security personnel are to be followed, otherwise elimination from the tech zone venue will occur.
- 23) The company/team accepts with, no reserve, the rules and regulations previously mentioned. Only the English original version of the rules and regulations will be admissible in court. The
