

The Glory Manifesting

Pastor Vern Peltz

How do we cause the Holy Spirit to Manifest in His Power and Presence?

1) Just love people

2) Meet their needs

a. Have no agenda, except:
- follow the Spirit

3) Close the deal

- a. We have to lead the person toward an encounter with God - and pray with them / release our faith so the Spirit can manifest.
- b. Pray with them about anything from Salvation to Miracles.

What is “Loving People”??

○

A. Everyone of us has a different definition of Love.

1. To be straight forward, all of us feel we know how to love / what it is to love.

Question:
If Loving God / People is something that is:

- Easy / something that comes natural to us / etc.

Why did God have to command us to do it?

What is Love?

I did a little survey...

What is Love?

- An emotion.
- A relationship where you feel Loved. Cared for. You feel like you have a friend.
  - Caring about another person.
  - Acceptance and Approval. (Agreement)
  - Forgiveness.
- Being close to someone, or intimate with them.
- A relationship that leaves you feeling good.

What is Love?

- We know we're loved when we feel loved / feel good about the relationship. And we know we're giving love when they feel good about the relationship.
- Being made to feel special or important, or making someone feel special or important.
  - Having relationship and spending time together.
- Treating someone or being treated tenderly, kindly, nicely is Love.

A relationship where you feel Loved.
Cared for.
You feel like you have a friend.

Acceptance and Approval.
(Agreement)

There are 17 different words in the NT Greek that are translated Love in the KJV bible.

A. The most familiar:

There are 17 different words in the NT Greek that are translated Love in the KJV bible.

A. The most familiar:

1. Agape
2. Philadelphia
3. Phileo
4. Sometimes Eros. (But it's not found in the NT)

1. 'Agapao'

a. It's more the 'state, condition, or mindset' of a person with Godly Love.

a. It's used the most in the NT: approximately 117 times.

2. 'Agape'

- a. It is referring more to taking Agapao, and living it out. Putting it into action.
- b. It the one we think of the most when we think of the God's Kind of Love
- c. It's used approximately 106 times in the NT

3. 'Philidelphia'

- a. Based in Fraternal affection: brotherly Love; kindness; Love of the Brethren (church app)
- b. Used 4 times in the NT

4. 'Phileo'

a. Used approximately 22 times in the NT

b. It is the love that most of the world and Christians operate in.

c. In itself, it's not bad - but it must be built on the foundation of Agapao / Agape to be good.

4. 'Phileo'

d. Phileo is being a friend / having affection for.....

- It tends to turn selfish and ungodly most of the time.
- It builds relationships on me, my feelings, my desires, how this relationship will serve me.

e. Interestingly, in my reference sources, it is the one pitted against Agape in that Phileo is the love that most Christians live in and think they are being Godly, Loving people. But in reality, it is not what God wants us living in.....

Agape; One of the definitions:

A. Agape is the “Love that embraces truth”.

1. Example: 1 Cor. 13:4-8 - all references are Agape.

2. v. 6 - Love (Agape) “rejoices in the truth”.

There are two things you can say for sure about human beings: our opposable thumbs make us great at using tools, and we are all big, fat liars. By age four, 90% of children have grasped the concept of lying, and it just gets worse from there.

According to a 2002 study conducted by Robert Feldman of the University of Massachusetts, 60% of adults can't have a ten-minute conversation without lying at least once. But even that number makes it sound better than it really is; those people in the study who did lie actually told an average of 3 lies during their brief chat.

And I know you're sitting there right now insisting you would be part of the 40% who didn't lie.

That's what the liars in the study thought, too. When they watched the taped conversations back, they were shocked at how many fibs they had told.

Nope.

No way.

Not me.

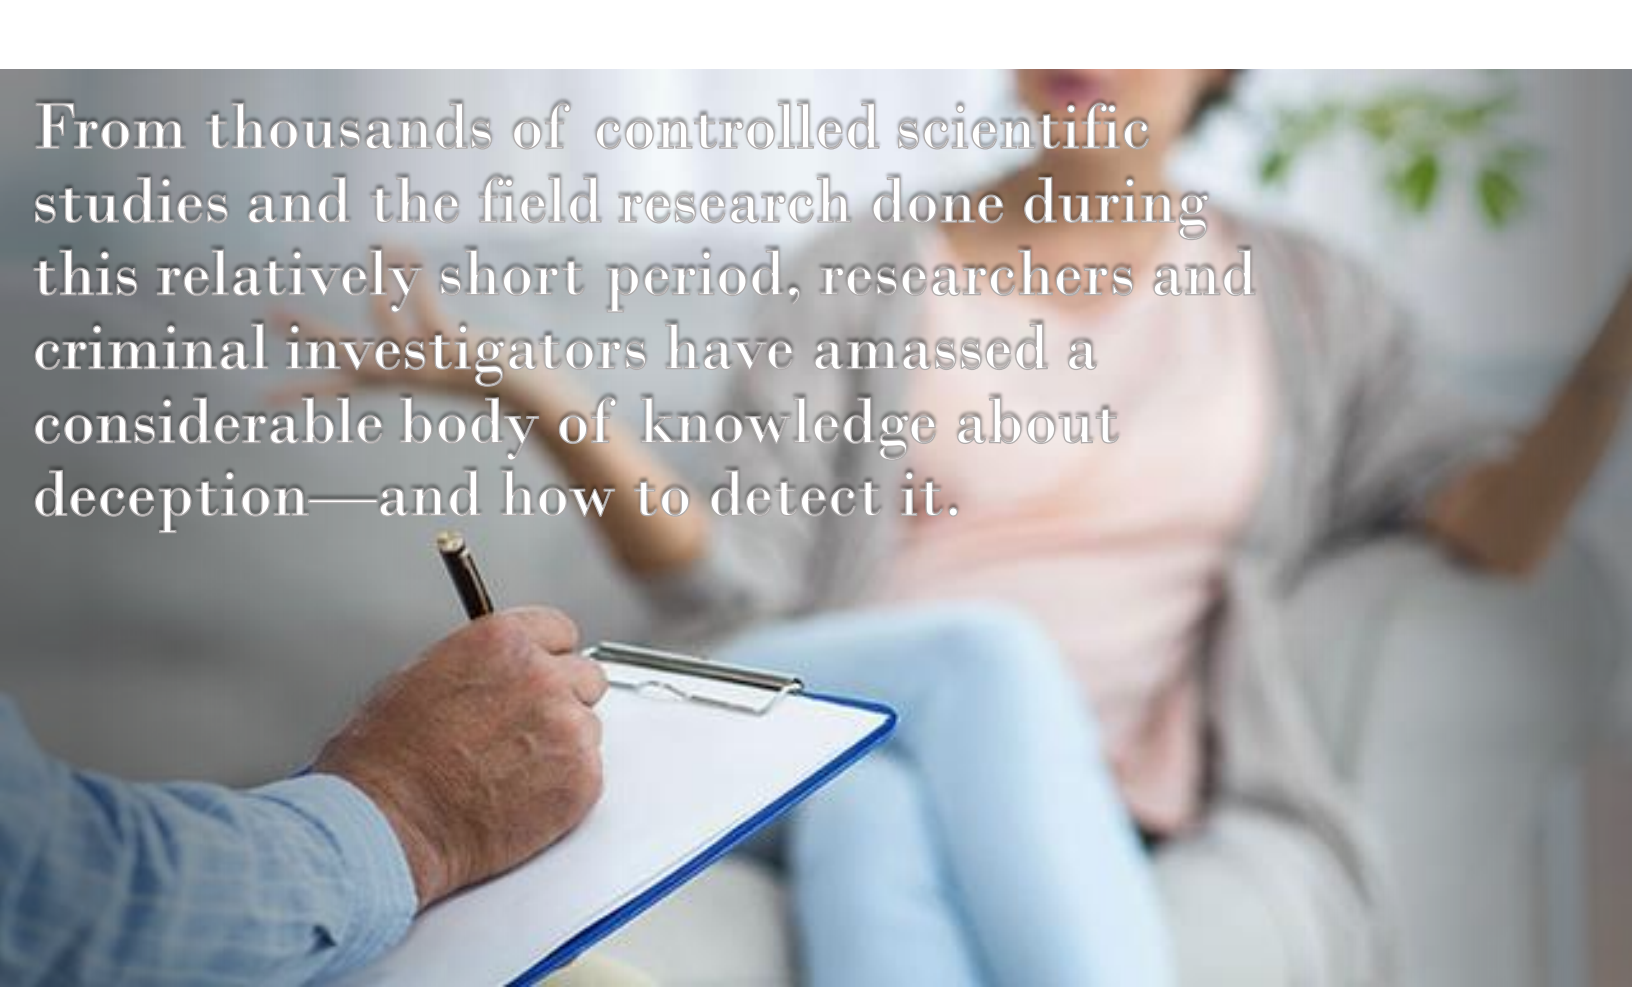

We lie to everyone. Our parents get the worst of it, according to The Day America Told the Truth, with 86% of us lying to them regularly, followed by friends (75%), siblings (73%), and spouses (69%). But in general, we lie about things that aren't important, little things that we think will make us look better or more likeable.

For Centuries, psychologists, philosophers and students of human nature have been probing how and why humans lie. But it was only in the mid-1900s that the study of deception emerged as a subject of popular scientific inquiry.

From thousands of controlled scientific studies and the field research done during this relatively short period, researchers and criminal investigators have amassed a considerable body of knowledge about deception—and how to detect it.

some of their most remarkable findings so
far:

- Humans are lied to as many as 200 times a day.
- Humans detect lies with only 54% accuracy. Separate studies led by deception researchers Aldert Vrij and Bella DePaulo found that the overwhelming majority of lies went undetected.
- Of the lies we tell, 25% are for someone else's sake.
- Children begin deceiving as early as age 6 months.

some of their most remarkable findings so
far:

- Percent of adults who admit to telling lies "sometimes" or "often" > 12 %
- Percent of women who admit to occasionally telling harmless half-truths > 80 %
- Percent of people who admit to lying on their resumes > 31 %
- Percent of patients who lie to their doctor > 13 %
- Percent of patients who "stretched the truth" to their doctor > 32 %
- Percent of patients who lied about following a doctors treatment plan > 40 %

some of their most remarkable findings so
far:

- Percent of patients who lied about their diet and exercise regiments > 30 %
- Percent of people who lie at least once during a 10-minute conversation > 60 %
- Average number of lies per day by men to their partner, boss, or colleagues > 6
- Average number of lies/day by women to their partner, boss, or colleagues > 3

The Holy Spirit asked me a question:

"Can you say what is true, without saying the truth?"

Revelation 21:1-8 (AMP)

[1] THEN I saw a new sky (heaven) and a new earth, for the former sky and the former earth had passed away (vanished), and there no longer existed any sea.

[Isa 65:17; 66:22.]

[2] And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, all arrayed like a bride beautified and adorned for her husband;

21:1-8

(AMP)

[3] Then I heard a mighty voice from the throne and I perceived its distinct words, saying, See! The abode of God is with men, and He will live (encamp, tent) among them; and they shall be His people, and God shall personally be with them and be their God. [Eze 37:27.]

[4] God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and death shall be no more, neither shall there be anguish (sorrow and mourning) nor grief nor pain any more, for the old conditions and the former order of things have passed away. [Isa 25:8; 35:10.]

Revelation

21:1-8

(AMP)

[5] And He Who is seated on the throne said, See! I make all things new. Also He said, Record this, for these sayings are faithful (accurate, incorruptible, and trustworthy) and true (genuine). [Isa 43:19.]

[6] And He [further] said to me, It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I [Myself] will give water without price from the fountain (springs) of the water of Life. [Isa 55:1.]

[7] He who is victorious shall inherit all these things, and I will be God to him and he shall be My son.

Revelation

21:1-8

(AMP)

[8] But as for the cowards and the ignoble and the contemptible and the cravenly lacking in courage and the cowardly submissive, and as for the unbelieving and faithless, and as for the depraved and defiled with abominations, and as for murderers and the lewd and adulterous and the practicers of magic arts and the idolaters (those who give supreme devotion to anyone or anything other than God) and all liars (those who knowingly convey untruth by word or deed) — [all of these shall have] their part in the lake that blazes with fire and brimstone. This is the second death. [Isa 30:33.]

Revelation

21:27

(AMP)

[27] But nothing that defiles or profanes or is unwashed shall ever enter it, nor anyone who commits abominations (unclean, detestable, morally repugnant things) or practices falsehood, but only those whose names are recorded in the Lamb's Book of Life.

Revelation 22:15 (AMP)

[15] [But] without are the dogs and those who practice sorceries (magic arts) and impurity [the lewd, adulterers] and the murderers and idolaters and everyone who loves and deals in falsehood (untruth, error, deception, cheating). [NKJV: whoever loves and practices a lie]
