On my way to church yesterday, I saw a pair of black leather gloved hands holding a sword. The sword came down and split the cloud, above the church, to the ground. The left side grew taller and expanded while the right side stayed the same.

The color of the scene was black and white. Neutral. I didn't feel anything about it. No emotions. It was like I was just seeing something take place as an observer. The slicing with the sword was one smooth motion. It sliced down to the ground. I feel it was a warrior skilled in the art of war.

The cloud stayed there. The right side stayed the same height and depth and dimension. The left side grew taller and expanded upward. I always see things happening from the west when I head to church. So, the gloved hands and sword sliced through from the west side of the cloud.

Setting: Black and White (Warning): "Revealing the enemies plans"
> General interpretation of the types is in the negative.

: Church: Spiritual arena / atmosphere. (Word of Life & TBO)

- Pair > '2' > "Division, difference, to divide, opposition, to accuse"
- Black > "Death, destruction, impurity, lack"
- Leather > "Death, Dead, a covering of something that was living, now is dead"
- Gloves > "Covering". (Black Gloves: "Evil Works")
- Hands > "Works, labor, influence, anointing, involvement"
- Sword > "Evil Words"

- Cloud > "Covering, Glory"

- Warrior skilled in the art of war > "Spiritual Source and Warfare"

The non-emotion, being simply an observer states the dream is simply being given as fact, and the observers is not the main participant of the dream. The main focus of the Vision/Dream is the church and the Glory.

The Kingdom of Darkness is planning an attack against the churches. It will specifically affect the Glory and Presence (Cloud) of God on the churches. It will be instigated through the “Divisive, Destructive, Dead Covering of the influence and evil anointing / involvement of evil words” (a Pair of Black Leather Gloved Hands wielding a Sword).

Just like in the book of Revelation, when there is spiritual movement, it precedes physical movement. The whole purpose of this attack is to use bad / evil words to destroy / kill the Glory (Power and Presence) that is on the churches.

The physical movement / response to this will be in the realm of complaining, murmuring, criticizing, gossip, slander, lies, etc. (Evil Words under demonic influence).

- One smooth motion > ‘Once it starts, it will be difficult to stop’
- Sliced to the ground > ‘Down to the earthly, carnal’
- Skilled Warrior > ‘Fallen angel, demonic’

The picture is showing us to pre-empt it, before it gets started. (This message from God is so that we take Pre-emptive Action on it) What it ultimately wants to touch is earthly, carnal, the old nature. It’s a spiritual effort / attack.

- The cloud remained > ‘The Glory stayed intact over the churches’
- Right > “Direction of favor, accepted, generally good, authority, power”
 - Same height, depth, dimensions > ‘The glory didn’t leave, but it didn’t grow either’
- Left > “Direction of disfavor, rejection, generally not good, judgment, spiritual warfare”
 - Grew taller and expanded upward > ‘The cloud is now showing us that once it’s split, (once division, disunity, strife take hold) the ‘Left’ side will grow and enlarge. It is showing that an evil or imposter will get into what God is doing, and cause the evil to grow.’
- West (side) > “To bring to a close / end”
 - > The things that God has been doing with his presence and Glory in the churches, the Kingdom of Darkness wants to bring to an end.
