Pastor Vern Peltz

“Who told you, you are not good enough? Who told you, it will never work for you? Who told you you don’t measure up? Who told you your less than other people, your incapable you will fail? Who told you, you don’t even need to try, let someone else do it? Who told you that your broken your ineffective? Who told you? That took you out of what I’ve asked you to do. That took you out of what boils in your heart. That you want to pursue with everything within you, but someone said something you heard some minister speak, you heard some relative say something, your parents said something, your grandparents said something your friend through a question in on what you shared with them (like are sure that God are you sure your capable?) Who planted the poison in you? Because the poison is keeping you from walking in the purpose you’re on this earth. And has the Master and the Ruler and the Owner of all I bought it all, I created it all, including your salvation, as the Master of it all I declare this morning I am done with it in your life. You need to get into agreement with me and put an end to all the falsehoods and the lies and the beliefs that are keeping you from stepping out and being mighty in my Spirit. I am done with that, and I call it to nothing in you. Will you join me?

I’m directing my Spirit to bring the things to your consciousness right now. These are what I’ve asked you to do, and these are the excuses you’ve given and why you still haven’t done it and I am done with your being handicapped and crippled because your believing some lie and you’re not believing me. If I said this is what I need you to do, do you think I cannot empower you to do it? If I asked you to do it, I deemed you worthy, I’ve deemed you capable, I’ve gifted you so you can accomplish it and this morning I once again lower the scepter to make the pronouncement; rise up and do it. I didn't make a mistake with what I've dropped in your heart.

Quit disqualifying yourself on the basis of non-Godly information. It's time to get in agreement with me call an end to that way of thinking, those choices, those priorities end them today and begin to step out in faith and do the next thing you need to do to obey me and rise up in what I've asked you to do. You won't see the whole picture you won't see the end as you move through this. But you'll see what you need to do next, and my Spirit will prompt you again and again and again and again, and people will come and try to say are you sure? I don't think. I'm not sure. They may even be so emboldened to say what you are doing is not of God. Recognize the spirit who's speaking through them for he is the father of lies and there's no truth in them. The people may be wonderful people but there chirping, muttering, and murmuring from the wrong source. Ignore them. Hear my heart and follow me and you will accomplish and do the great things that I have laid before you and dropped in your heart. Who told you I don't care? I am telling you right now, follow me, follow me and I will heal and restore your thinking and your emotions. Follow me, obey me. I am not speaking this morning to fill time I am speaking this morning to change the destiny of the people within the sound of my voice who are going to leave a mark and change the destiny of their realm of influence. This is a pivotal life changing moment for you right now, and I am asking you to step out and make the change by faith. I may not revisit this with you again. This is your holy ground burning bush moment."
