Worldview Realities

- Everyone has a worldview
- Your worldview is the intellectual, emotional and spiritual filter through which you see and respond to the world
- Because your worldview enables you to make sense of the world, you need a worldview to survive
- Every decision you make is shaped by your worldview

Every Decision You Make Is Based On Your Worldview

Moralistic therapeutic deism

Those components included:

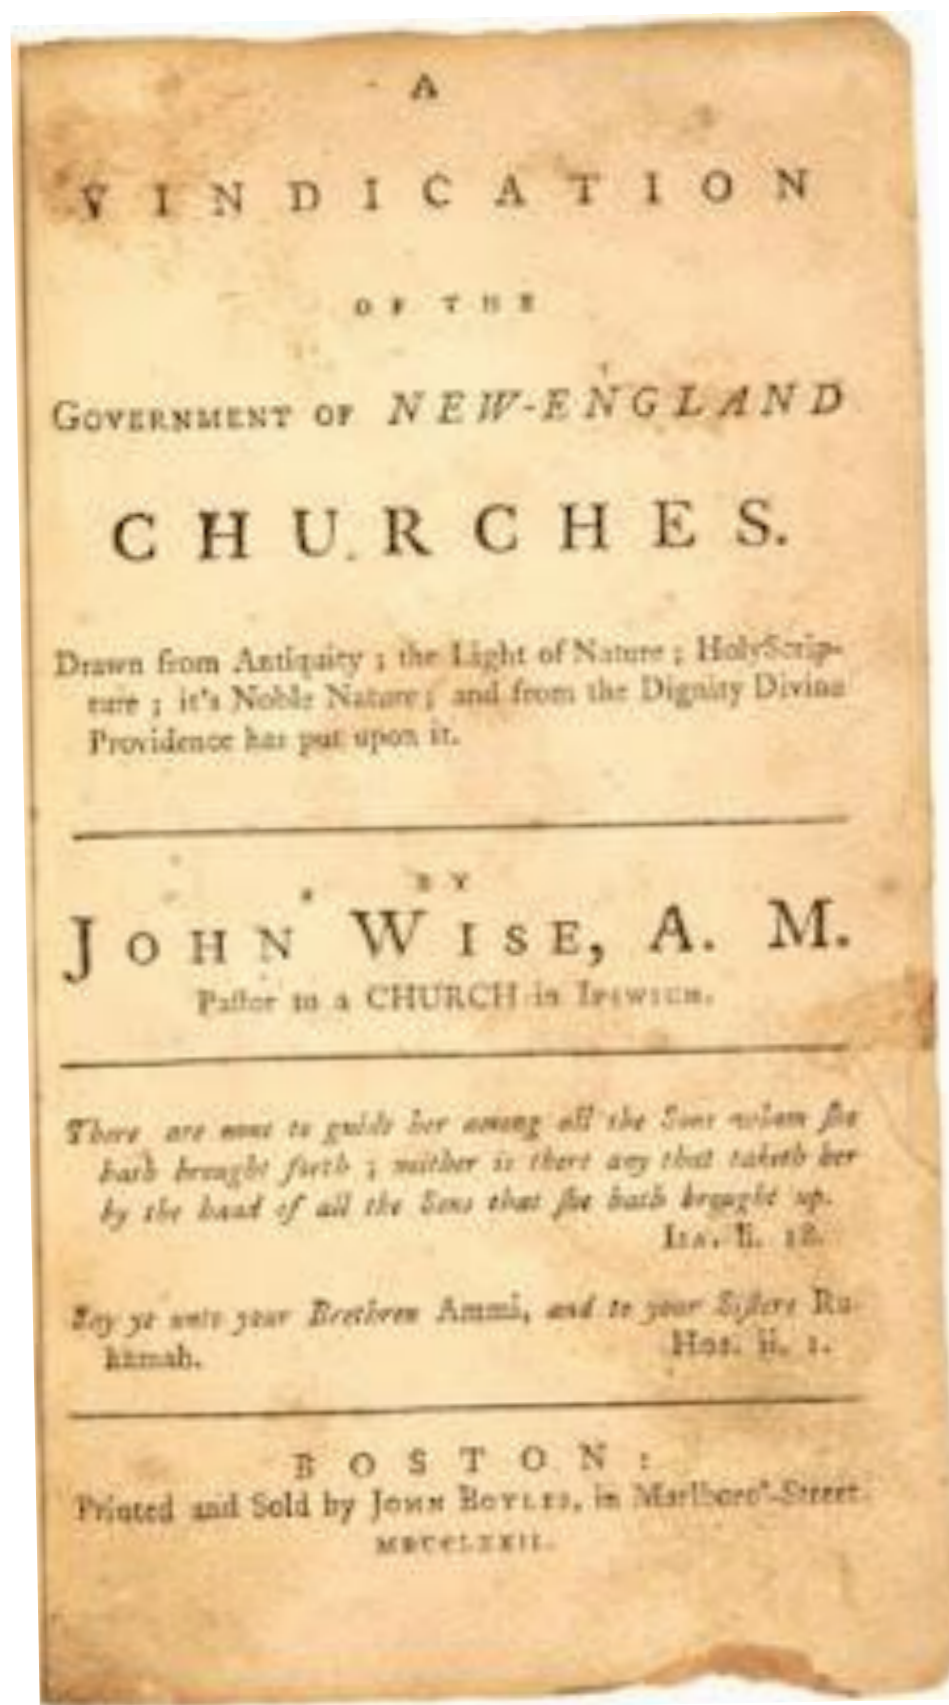

- Belief in a God who remains distant from people's lives.
- People are supposed to be good to each other (i.e., moral)
- The universal purpose of life is being happy and feeling good about oneself.
- There are no absolute moral truths.
- God allows “good people” into Heaven.

The learned clergy . . . had great influence in founding the first genuine republican governments ever formed and which, with all the faults and defects of the men and their laws, were the best republican governments on earth.

At this moment, the people of this country are indebted chiefly to their institutions for the rights and privileges which are enjoyed.

“You ... are placed by Providence in the post of honor, because it is the post of danger ... The eyes not only of North America and the whole British Empire, but of all Europe, are upon you. Let us be, therefore, altogether solicitous that no disorderly behavior, nothing unbecoming our characters as Americans, as citizens and Christians, be justly chargeable to us.”

Congress of the United States, begun and held at the City of New York, on Wednesday the fourth of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine.

THE Constitution of the United States, having at the time of their adopting the Constitution, expressed a desire, in order to give more effect to the provisions of the powers, that further declaration and restriction should be added, that as touching the ground of public opinion in the Government, well understood the longest and the

RESOLVED by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the following Articles be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States, as amendments to the Constitution of the United States, all of which Articles, when ratified by three fourths of the said Legislatures, to be added to all ratifications and parts of the said Constitution, 1789.

ARTICLES in addition to, and amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America, proposed by Congress, and ratified by the Legislatures of the several States, pursuant to the fifth Article of the original Constitution:

Article the first. After the first enumeration required by the first Article of the Constitution, there shall be one Representative for every thirty thousand, until the number shall amount to one hundred, after which the proportion shall be so regulated by Congress, that there shall not be less than one hundred Representatives, nor less than one Representative for every forty thousand persons, until the number of Representatives shall amount to two hundred, after which the proportion shall be so regulated by Congress, that there shall not be less than two hundred Representatives, nor more than one Representative for every fifty thousand persons.

Article the second. No law, varying the compensation for the Senators and Representatives, shall take effect, until an election of Representatives shall have intervened.

Article the third. Congress shall never exercise the judicial power, or any power relating to the Judiciary, or any power relating to the rights of life, or the rights of property, or any power which shall be committed to the Judiciary, and to regulate the government for a period of years.

Article the fourth. A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of the State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed.

Article the fifth. No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, without the consent of the Grand Jury, nor in any case, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Article the sixth. The right of the people to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury, in all criminal prosecutions, shall be secured. And no person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, without the consent of the Grand Jury, nor in any case, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Article the seventh. No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, without the consent of the Grand Jury, nor in any case, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Article the eighth. No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, without the consent of the Grand Jury, nor in any case, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Article the ninth. No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, without the consent of the Grand Jury, nor in any case, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Article the tenth. No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, without the consent of the Grand Jury, nor in any case, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Article the eleventh. No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, without the consent of the Grand Jury, nor in any case, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Article the twelfth. No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, without the consent of the Grand Jury, nor in any case, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Attest:

John B. Hodge, Secretary of the Senate.
John B. Hodge, Secretary of the House.

WITH BIBLICAL TRUTH

Dr. Joseph Warren

Our country is in danger, but not to be despaired of. On you depend the fortunes of America. You are to decide the important question upon which rest the happiness and the liberty of millions yet unborn. Act worthy of yourselves.

They will know!
