OVER-SEA-ING IT ALL FROM IRVINE, CALIFORNIA.

This is where it all comes together.

Our headquarters. Our core.
The management, the US team, the people behind the scenes making every move count.

The ones turning everyday efforts into something bigger, something meaningful.

MANY ADDRESSES, ONE HOME. BRIDGING.

Sec-8, Chandigarh

Started here. A small setup, a few desks, and big plans. And before we knew it, we outgrew it in the best possible way.

Bestech Business Tower, Mohali

A few years in, 2017, a new address for the Bridging fam. The team grew, desks turned into corridors and meeting halls where big decisions were made.

Cp-67, Mohali

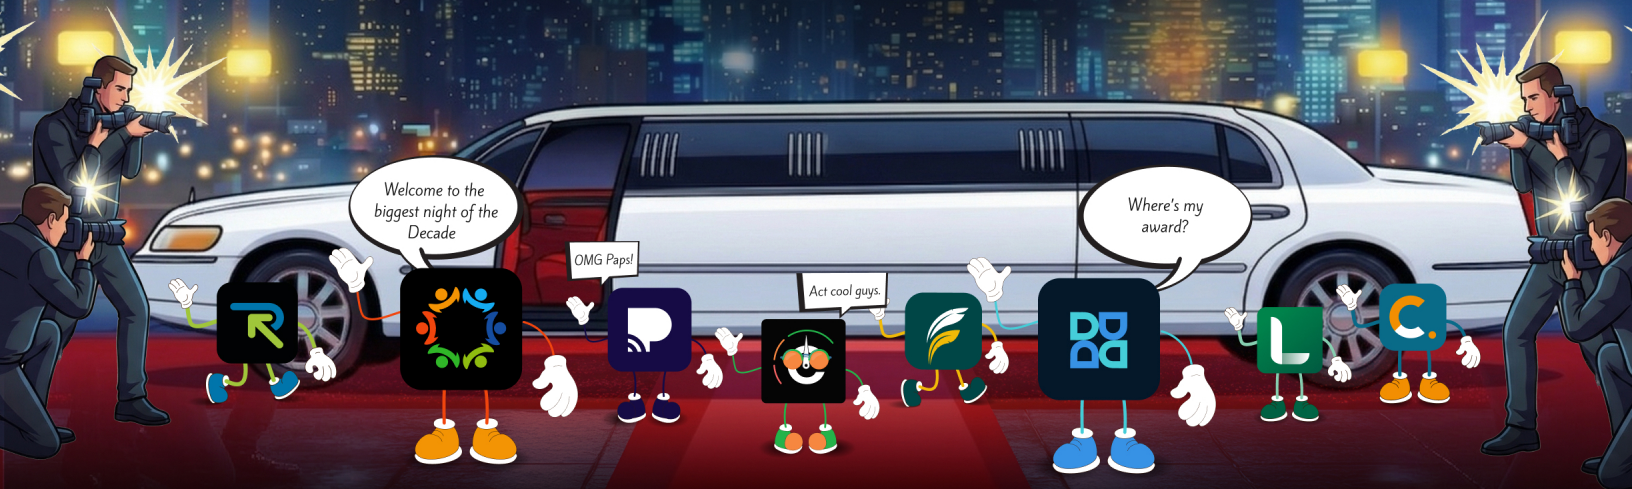

The next move, a big one, came in 2023. Two floors and open doors, a home to a team that's only growing bigger and stronger.

And from here on, there's no limit to where and how far we'll go.

PRODUCTS' R&R

FROM THE VPs' DESKS

10 years in, and what's clear is that our strength has never just been in what we build, but in how we show up — with ownership, grit, and a willingness to keep improving. Growth at this level doesn't happen without people who care deeply about the outcome. I'm proud to be part of a team that continues to challenge itself and raise the bar. The opportunity ahead is even bigger than what's behind us — and we're just getting started.

ANKUR CHADHA

Heartfelt congratulations to everyone in the Bridging family on reaching this remarkable 10-year milestone. Over the past decade, this company has been shaped by continuous learning, meaningful growth, and the collective achievements of an exceptional team. Whether you've been part of the journey since day one or joined us recently, this moment belongs to you. It reflects your dedication, your collaboration, and the passion you bring to your work every day. Thank you for everything you've contributed to building what Bridging is today. Here's to celebrating this milestone together—and to an even brighter, more successful chapter ahead.

NICK DALWANI

GAUTAM GROVER

Ten years, if you stop to actually think about it, is kind of wild.

When I look back, what stands out isn't the big announcements or the headline numbers, it's the stuff in between. The problems that seemed impossible until they weren't. The decisions we lost sleep over. The small wins that nobody posted about but everyone quietly felt. That's the real story of this company. (And it's a good one.) We've grown in size, in capability, in the very particular kind of wisdom that only comes from doing things the hard way a few times. More importantly, we've grown as a team. That's the part I don't take for granted.

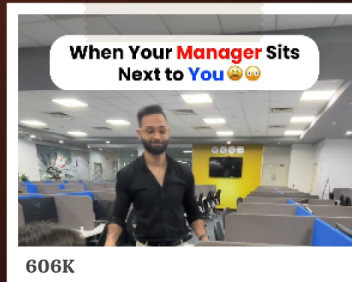

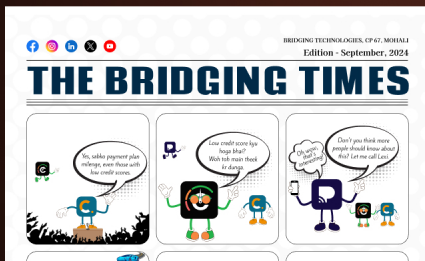

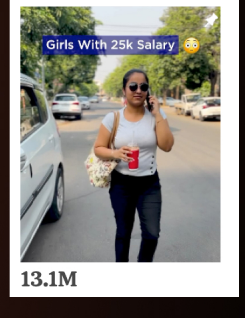

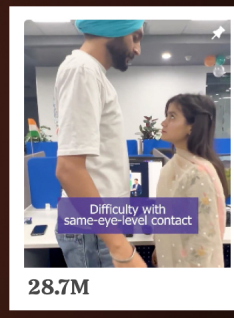

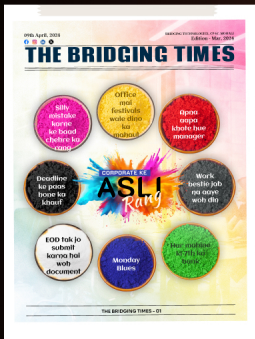

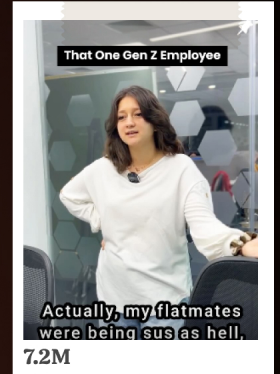

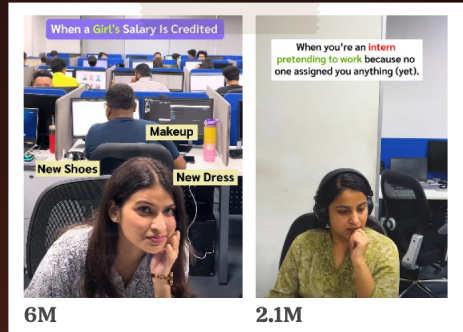

The next chapter comes with its own set of challenges. But if the last decade taught us anything, it's that this team figures it out. Every time. Sometimes gracefully, sometimes not - but always together. Thank you for what you've put into this place. It adds up to something genuinely worth being proud of.
