Anything balanced with a little tangy twist.

Vegetarian Pad Thai is one food I'd never say no to — it's a perfect balance of sweet, tangy, and savory flavors made with rice noodles, fresh vegetables, tofu, crunchy peanuts, and a squeeze of lime. The mix of soft noodles and crisp veggies gives it a satisfying texture, while the ingredients provide a wholesome and nourishing meal. Originating from Thailand, this classic stir-fried dish is both flavorful and relatively healthy, making it a comforting yet balanced choice anytime. 🍜

All of the above. Why choose limitations?

Anything that respects my built-in storage capacity.

—Richit Sharma

We Kolkatans have a knack for items both sweet and spicy. :)

There are actually 3 items that hold great value to me - Chicken Biryani (Kolkata-style), Paneer Butter Masala, and Kheer Kadam (go Google it :)). Give me any of these on any day, and I'm sold.

—Varun Goswami

Sweet

Khajla 🥰 - It is round shaped sweet dipped in sugar syrup, crunchy from outside, soft from inside 😊. It has khoa on it added with red, green and yellow cherry. Nothing can be more delicious 🤤 than that. Only con is that it is sold only in my hometown

Sun's Up, So Cool Down!

Whatever your taste preference may be, the rising temperature is a clear sign that it's time to enjoy something cool and refreshing.

Chill out this season with these hydrating foods and drinks:

Coconut Water

Sprout Salad

Fruit Chaat

Lassi (sweet or salted)

Aam Panna

Chilled Gazpacho

Dearest Colleagues, Your office lingo, Victorian-ised:

As per my last email

I direct your attention, once again, to my prior correspondence, which I composed with great care and which appears to have gone entirely unread.

Please advise

I humbly beseech you to grace me with your wisdom on this matter, at whatever hour you see fit to emerge.

Hope this helps

I trust this has shed sufficient light upon the matter and that we shall not need to revisit it again. I remain cautiously optimistic.

Friendly reminder

I extend this notice in the warmest possible spirit, though I confess my patience has begun to wear considerably thin.

Moving forward

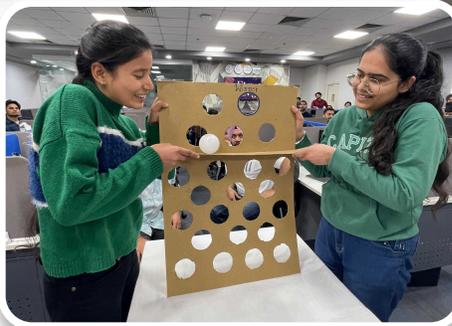

Let us agree, for the sake of all involved, to conduct ourselves henceforth in a manner more befitting of civilised professionals.

Please do the needful

Might I trouble you to actually do something about this, rather than simply acknowledging its existence?
